Pastor's Corner

This coming Saturday evening, our Knights of Columbus will be hosting a Priest Appreciation dinner. Fr. Gustavo and I have been invited and will be in attendance. Although we will be attending the event (and I am sure we will be appreciated in some manner), yet I will be honest with you and say that I do not feel comfortable in being appreciated. And why is this? It's because we priests are only doing what we are being called to do. Just like parents who perform so many, many small tasks and sacrifices they make for their family and do not seek praise, so we priests also do what we are called to do. I understand the reasons why the KofC wish to put on this evening event for us, but what we priest's seek most is prayers.

Please pray for us priests, that we can remain faithful servants of the Lord. Pray that we can also be faithful to the Good News of Jesus Christ. Like everyone, we too are tempted into sin and as we pray and offer up sacrifices for you, so may you also do the same for us. Yes, we need your prayers, because first and foremost we priests are sinners.

*Blessings,
Fr. Liborio*

p.s. Please, please don't forget to pray for us... and when you do, you are extending your appreciation to us.

Vocations

What could convince someone to turn to God? The story that God became human? The story that Jesus cured the sick? The story that Jesus forgave sin? The story that Jesus rose from the dead? Or, perhaps, the story of the witness of your own life! If you have the continuing inclination that God is calling you to be a priest, religious or deacon, call Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto, 416-968-0997
email: vocations@archtoronto.org website: www.vocationstoronto.ca

ShareLife Sunday - Living the Gospel by helping those with addictions

SL ShareLife

Scarred by an abusive childhood, Andrew became addicted to hard drugs as an early teen. His next 20 years were spent in-and-out of jail and the hospital. He finally came to St. Michael's Homes, a ShareLife-funded agency that offers a residential program for those struggling with substance abuse. Now sober and equipped with coping skills, Andrew is happy and building a new life. By supporting ShareLife, you're helping people like Andrew get their lives back on track.

Next Sunday, April 22 is ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously.
