Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
This coming Saturday October 27th I will be stepping out of the parish for two full weeks. Since I am leaving this coming Saturday morning it will mean that I will be away for three weekends. So Fr. Patrick will be in charge of the whole show. But not to worry – I have been able to get visiting priests to help Fr. Patrick during the three weekends I'm away.

As you may know we priests get one day off per week. I try to take Mondays off and Fr. Patrick takes Thursdays. But apart from this, we are also given four weeks a year "get away" from the hustle and bustle of parish life.

We all know the old joke that is often said by people – priests only work one day a week. Sadly there are people who actually believe this and don't see it as a joke. But this is as far from the truth as can be. Just ask the office staff or the majority of the volunteers around the parish and they will confirm that we work much more than one day a week. The truth is that we priests here at St. Mary's often work 10 to 12 hours a day. So our day off per week and our "get-a-ways" are special to us to get reenergized.

Now I am not complaining at all and I am sure Fr. Patrick is not as well (at least he has not complained to me... yet! Hahaha). We love what we are doing and our ministry is not "work" at all, but do the will of the Lord. We both are aware that many of you work just as long as we do if not more. And we are also aware that many of you are not able to take time off to be with family and friends. That's why we try not to stress our time away or where we will be going. We need to be sensitive to those who currently are not able to get away at all.

So please forgive me that I will not be sharing with you where I will be going or what I will be doing. What I can and will share with you is that my two weeks away will be with my brother who also needs some time away from his hectic job that he loves. Enjoy the next three weekends without me and I hope the "announcement" will still be as exciting as ever... hahaha.

Blessings,
Fr. Liborio
