Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Associate Pastor's Corner

Hello everyone,
 To start off, I hope you are feeling blessed by the Lord today. Personally, I feel doubly blessed as it has been a week since Fr. Liborio has been away. I am also happy to tell you that I will continue feeling doubly blessed for one more week. Guess why... precisely, because the boss is away... so I'm very much enjoying my party, relaxing from being 'bossed around by a bossy boss'. And.. you know I'm kidding (not) hahaha.

On a fresh page, as we know, it is now the 31st Sunday in the Church Liturgical Year B. Hence, as the Church's current Liturgical Year gradually approaches it's close (with the 34th Sunday), our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ practically summarises for each and everyone of us the very heart or quintessence of all the prayers and songs, fasting and abstinence, almsgiving and charities, as well as the stewardship of our talent, time and treasure, which we have, in various capacities, generously busied ourselves with since last Advent. That very heart is 'love': love of God above every person and above every thing, and then, love of our fellow human beings (weak or strong, sick or healthy, lowly or mighty, poor or rich, enemy or friend, etc.) as we love our own selves. In fact, Jesus added after he answered the Scribe's question, saying: "There is no other commandment greater than these". Wow... Jesus did effectively hand out to us the very password with which to sign ourselves in to happiness, to inner peace and to true life. Why is that? Precisely because, to do the will of God (contained in words of the commandments) is to have God in oneself, and to have God in oneself is to have the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit dwelling within; this, in its turn, means to have the Kingdom of God as our most cherished innermost Guest. When we 'have' this spiritual banquet going on inside us, it is then and only then that we bear fruits of righteousness, peace and joy by the power of the Holy Spirit (cf. Rom 14:17)!!!

I, therefore, wish you and your family a very blessed and serene weekend, as well as a fruitful new week of toil and labour. Please, please, don't forget to put a little love in whatever thing you are going to busy yourself with this week!

God bless you all !

Keeping you all in my prayers,
 Fr. Patrick CCE

St. Mary's Memorial Mass

Memorial Mass Saturday, November 17th 10:30 am

November is the month of Holy Souls. The St. Mary's Ministry of Consolation and Hope invites you to join us for a Mass to pray for and celebrate the lives of your beloved who have died and were buried from our parish this past year. Anyone who has lost a loved one this past year, please feel welcome to attend.

Pray for Vocations

The blind beggar Bartimaeus would not listen to the many people scolding him to be quiet, but shouted all the louder in prayer "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Only then did Jesus call him over and answered his need. Bartimaeus becomes a powerful example of how persistent we must be in prayer when we are asking God to show us His Will for our lives. And then, ask Him for the grace to accept it.

If you feel God is offering you the grace of a Church vocation, call Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto, 416-968-0997

Shepherds' Trust - November 18th, 2018

Shepherds' Trust www.shepherdstrust.org The mission of the Shepherds' Trust is to raise awareness and funds so that elderly and disabled priests are provided with sufficient financial resources to lead a dignified life after many years of ministry. The fund supports the needs of retired clergy in the Catholic Archdiocese of Toronto who have served our family of faith for many years. By supporting the Shepherds' Trust, retired priests are given the dignity of adequate pensions, health care and other assistance in their golden years.

CWL Christmas Bazaar

This Saturday November 10th, 9:30 am - 2:30 pm
