Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
This coming Sunday Fr. Ricardo (who was our Associate Pastor from July 2009 to July 2012) is celebrating his 50th birthday. I am planning to hire a marching band to serenade him at his rectory. I also plan to have a 21 gun salute at the exact time of the day he was born (I hope it was not between 10pm and 8am or else the neighbors will be awakened with a start). I will hire a small plane to fly a big sign saying "Congratulations on your 50th birthday Fr. Ricardo". And finally, I will remember him in my masses next weekend. In truth I will only do the last of this list of possible actions... hahahaha.

In our lives we have special occasions to celebrate and remember – these are wrapped up in the events that make up our lives.

We celebrate important events like weddings, anniversaries, birthdays, baptismal dates, deaths of loved ones, births of children and grandchildren, the first time people met the great Fr. Liborio (just joking... this is more of a night-mare for people I am sure... hahaha).

As we celebrate "Ordinary Time" (where the liturgical colour we use is green), we can think that these Sundays are not special occasions to raise our spirits as we do in the seasons of Christmas and Easter. If we think this way then we have missed the point of "Ordinary Time".

We can use the analogy of a lasting marriage to give light to what our Liturgical season of Ordinary Time is all about. A marriage is made of thousands of "married days" and each day is unique and special. Each married day gives weight and meaning to the anniversary – because without the living out of each married day the anniversary would not be possible. When a couple celebrates 25 or 50 years of marriage they know that these occasions are opportunities to recognize the thousands of days that make up these anniversaries. In the same way, our liturgical Season of Ordinary Time is an opportunity for us to appreciate the weekly Sunday Eucharist – for it is in celebrating these Ordinary Sundays that we get to appreciate the full impact of such Seasons as Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter.

I wish you all a happy "Ordinary Time".

Fr. Liborio

World Day for Consecrated Life

On Saturday, February 2, the Church celebrates the World Day for Consecrated Life. In the Archdiocese of Toronto, we are blessed to have living and serving among us more than 900 consecrated men and women. The World Day for Consecrated Life is a wonderful opportunity for us to thank God for the gifts of these sisters, virgins, brothers and priests and to pray for God's blessing upon them in their efforts to faithfully live the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity and obedience. Bishop Wayne Kirkpatrick will preside at a special Mass on Sunday, February 3, 2018 at 3 p.m. at St. Paul's Basilica, Toronto in celebration of the vocation and witness of these special men and women, who are such a vital and important part of the life and ministry of the Church in our archdiocese. All are welcome.

Pray for Vocations
