Pastor's Corner

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ
God is good all the time, and all the time ....
Next Sunday is Palm Sunday, the beginning of the Holy Week. It is the week in which we shall liturgically commemorate and actualize in our lives that 'supreme love', for which 'God gave his only-begotten Son, so that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life' (John 3:16). The liturgical readings of this Sunday prepare us for that sacred week. Reflecting on the Gospel of today, one question comes to my mind: "What is Jesus' attitude toward sins?" I remember a saying which goes: 'you don't throw away the baby with the dirty water'. I think this analogy holds true for God's attitude toward us and our sins. Yes, we are sinful and filthy; yet God never gives up on anybody, NEVER. Without approving her sins, Jesus spared the woman caught in flagrante committing adultery (cf. John 8:1-11). He suspended the capital punishment prescribed by the law. Hence, Jesus explicitly refused to equate the poor sinner's value with her sins. He rather distinguished clearly between the two. Wow... thank God there is God!
Indeed, St. Paul was therefore right when he teaches that, our righteousness does not come from us, but from God (cf. Phil 3:8-14). If eternal life were to depend totally on our own merit, then only very few will be saved. Luckily however, God alone it is who saves us with his grace, as well as with our own cooperation. Unfortunately, some fellow Christians undervalue the latter point (i.e. human cooperation with God's grace), thinking that it is enough to believe and you are saved. If it were so, Jesus would have simply said to the accused woman, 'go your way'; instead Jesus added, 'and from now on, do not sin again'. Oh yes, the message is crystal clear: even though our wills have been weakened by sin, we still have the assistance of God's grace which strengthens and emboldens us to say no to sin. Here lies the point! We can make positive changes in our lives, if we truly will it, 'our will is ours', 'your will is yours', and 'my will is mine'.
To conclude, as we come closer to the mountain peak of our Lenten disciplines, may we consciously, by God's grace, make concrete progress on our ability and actual adherence to the will of God. May God reform what is deformed in us, and transform that which He has reformed, to his own glory.

"Neither do I condemn you. Go your way, and from now on, do not sin again" (John 8:11).
I wish you and your family a blessed sunny week!
Blessings,
Fr. Patrick CCE

Gospel by supporting those with disabilities

Ben, a 66-year-old with a developmental disability, lives with his 90-year-old mother. Without any other family, she didn't have a plan to take care of him after she no longer was able to do so. She turned to Mary Centre, a ShareLife agency, which matched Ben with a respite worker. This worker gradually introduced Ben to residents of one of Mary Centre's group homes. Now that he has befriended its residents and staff, Ben will find the eventual transition less overwhelming. He has already developed a sense of belonging to his future community. May 5 is ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously.

Easter Decorating

We are offering up the opportunity for you the Parishioners to raise up the Easter Celebration. Offerings of flower plants of different varieties such as Hydrangeas, Lilies, Tulips, Mums, Daffodils, etc. would help in this most Blessed time. If you wish to dedicate your flower plants to someone who has passed away, please put the name in the pot. Please leave them from Saturday, April 13 -19 in the parish office. Thank you for your generosity. God Bless, - The Liturgical Decoration Team
