Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
This weekend we conclude our First Communion celebrations. Our young brothers and sisters who have been coming to mass these last weeks have been given the greatest gift the Church can give its members – the Church gives it's Lord and Savior himself... we give Jesus Christ in the Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist.

I invite you to please pray for these young children and their families, so that they can continue to live out their "practice of the faith".

Speaking of Communion... I would like to remind people of the importance of receiving communion in the proper way.

Here are some reminders of how we are to receive communion:

- As you approach the Priest, Deacon or Extra-Ordinary Minister of Communion, give a slight bow of the head before you are to receive communion. A profound bow is not called for at this moment (a profound bow is reserved for the Altar or the Blessed Sacrament when one is not able to genuflect).
 - When the minister proclaims "The Body of Christ", we respond with "Amen" – your 'Amen' should be stated clearly and in a volume that is heard by the person who is giving you communion. In your 'Amen' you affirm your belief in the Blessed Sacrament as the True Presence of Jesus Christ.
 - If you receive communion on the hand:
Present your hands out to receive a very precious gift that you did not wish to fall and break. Place your dominant hand (the hand you write with) below the other. When the Eucharist is in your hand, immediately pick it up with the hand that is underneath (dominant hand) and place it in your mouth. Before you move your top hand that held the Body of Christ, look down and see if any particles of the Eucharist have remained – if so, remember to pick up the particles and also consume them.
 - If you are receiving communion on the tongue:
Remember to say your 'Amen' before you place your tongue out. Remember to actually put out your tongue where the Eucharist can safely be placed on it. Don't just open your mouth with the hope that the minister will be able to throw in your mouth the Eucharist.
 - There is no fast rule if one should bless themselves after receiving communion or not. However, one should not bless themselves with the Eucharist before they place it in their mouth.
 - After receiving communion it is a good practice to return to one's pew and allow oneself to silently give thanks to the Lord for what one has received – i.e. Christ the Lord!
- I hope these pointers may help us all to remember how we are to receive communion with humble dignity and with the fullest of respect for what we are receiving.

Blessings,
Fr. Liborio

Living the Gospel by Supporting Isolated Seniors

In the span of three months, Debbie felt she had lost everything. Her partner of 33 years died, her leg was amputated, and she could no longer care for her beloved pets. She turned to the Society of Sharing, a ShareLife-funded agency, who partnered her with a volunteer named Geof. Not only did Geof provide friendship, he used his teaching background to help Debbie fulfill a lifelong goal: learning how to properly read. Though it will be impossible for Debbie to regain all she has lost, her life is feeling full again.

Our St. Mary's Parish Goal is: $ 116,200.00

Collected to Date: $ 55,427.55

Next Sunday, June 2 is ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously.
