Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
This weekend we celebrate Father's Day. Blessed are those who have been graced to have a good father, because sadly not all have received this grace.

How important it is now-a-days to have good and faithful fathers – fathers who give us the example of 'fatherhood' and shed light on the 'Fatherhood' of God.

How can we thank our fathers for all that they do? I think the best way is to say those three words that we children often find it hard to say (especially as we get into our teens and older) – and those three words are "I love you!"

Here is a good prayer for our fathers this weekend:

Happy Father's Day!

*We give our thanks, Creator God, for the fathers in our lives.
Fatherhood does not come with a manual,
and reality teaches us that some fathers excel while others fail.
We ask for Your blessings for them all and forgiveness where it is needed.
This Father's Day we remember the many sacrifices fathers make for their children and families, and the ways--both big and small--they lift children to achieve dreams thought beyond reach.
So too, we remember all those who have helped fill the void when fathers pass early or are absent; grandfathers and uncles, brothers and cousins, teachers, pastors and coaches and the women of our families.
For those who are fathers, we ask for wisdom and humility in the face of the task of parenting. Give them the strength to do well by their children and by You.
In Your Holy name, O God, we pray.
Amen.*

- Rev. Chuck Currie

And finally, how did God think of creating our 'FATHER'S'? Well...

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity,
The depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... Dad

Living the Gospel by Helping Homeless Youth

ShareLife

On any given night, 6,000 people across Canada between 16 and 24 have nowhere to call home. This represents 20% of the total homeless population. The ShareLife-supported Rights of Passage program at Covenant House is making a positive difference in the lives of homeless youth on the streets of Toronto. The program matches adolescents with mentors who help them build life skills.

By supporting ShareLife, you're helping at-risk youth prepare for life on their own.

Please make a sacrificial gift to ShareLife through your parish or sharelife.org
