Pastor's Corner

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,
On the night of the Last Supper Jesus was not only celebrating the Passover that all faithful Jews were called to do – no, He was also instituting the Eucharist and forever changing the face of the Earth and the contact of God to His creation. Every time we come to celebrate the Eucharist we can see ourselves as being present at the Last Supper.

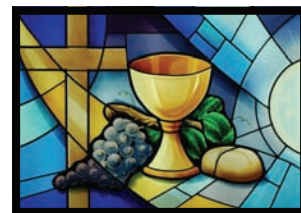

I invite you to reflect on the importance of the Eucharist in your life.

Here is a good question for you and for me; If there was no Sunday Eucharistic Celebration, would it make any difference to you? Think hard about this question, because if someone's answer is "no, it would not make a difference in my life at all", then this means this person has no clue what the Eucharist is all about. They would not know the GIFT it is to each and every one of us and the Church.

Without the Eucharist, we can say that there is no Church. The Eucharist is the greatest TREASURE that GOD has given to the World. Until we understand this TREASURE we would never fully comprehend Its true meaning in our lives and in the world. In two weeks time, I will continue to develop this theme of the Eucharist and Its GIFT to us, the Church and the World.

Blessings,

Fr. Liborio
