United Nations World Interfaith Harmony Week 2022

Justice and Reconciliation: Listen, Learn, Engage

Rev. Prakash Anthony Lohale,
OP - Director

World Interfaith Harmony Week (WIHW) February 1st to 7th is an annual event to promote harmony between people regardless of their faith. WIHW wants to promote dialogue among different faiths and religions to create mutual understanding, cooperation and harmony between people. The UN encourages all the states, institutions and civil society at large to spread the message of Interfaith Harmony and Goodwill throughout the world (UN, 2022).

Join us for an online intergenerational event – a collaboration between the Toronto Catholic District School Board, the Mary Ward Centre and the Archdiocese of Toronto Office for Interreligious Dialogue. A panel of speakers from different faith traditions engaged in the work of justice and reconciliation will address the topic of Listen, Learn and Engage. This will be followed by a chance to engage in conversation in a breakout room and an action piece to follow up.

Date: Thursday, February 24, 2022

Time: Period One – 8:50 to 10 a.m. (formal program)
10 to 10:30 a.m. (breakout)

Duration: 70 minutes

ONLINE: <http://www.interfaithtoronto.ca/events.html>

Religious Education and Faith Formation

St. Martin de Porres

Today's saint was born in colonial Lima, Peru, to a well-connected Spanish father and a black Panamanian mother who had been a slave. While parentage is revealing, focusing uniquely on someone's origins can also be a lazy shortcut which reduces a complex person to mere bloodlines, leaving aside a thousand more compelling factors that make a life interesting.

Even though his father was perfectly well known, Martin's baptism registration reads "Son of an unknown father," making Martin illegitimate, a severe disadvantage. To be half black in colonial Latin America was to start life's race ten miles behind.

Saint Martin de Porres, we present our humble petitions to you, so that your faith and humility may bring them to our Father in Heaven. You were close to both God and man on earth. Continue to be close to us as you live with the Lord in heaven and seek favors on our behalf.

Pope Francis' Prayer to Saint Joseph

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
To you God entrusted his only Son;
in you Mary placed her trust;
with you Christ became man.

Blessed Joseph, to us too,
show yourself a father
and guide us in the path of life.
Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
and defend us from every evil. Amen.

(Composed by Pope Francis in Patris Corde.)

Who Am I to Judge? with Dr. Edward Sri (Formed)

In this small group study program featuring Edward Sri, we'll explore the classical view of morality and find that it's not merely a set of guiding principles for theoretical situations

Who Am I to Judge? Session 2: Recovering the Basics: Virtue and Friendship

Each one of us is created for love. The good news is that we don't have to figure out how to live up to this purpose on our own. In this session, we'll discover that there really is a set of skills that will make us capable of living our relationships well and eventually building up a great society: the virtues, and that these virtues are the skills we need for life.

St. Patrick: Pilgrimage to Peace

St. Patrick may be the most popular, yet least-known, figure in Christian history. Each year revelers hold parties and parades to celebrate his day, yet the average person likely has no idea who Patrick of Ireland truly was.

A Parent's Prayer

Loving God,
You are the giver of all we possess,
the source of all of our blessings.
We thank and praise you.

Thank you for the gift of our children.

Help us to set boundaries for them,
and yet encourage them to explore.
Give us the strength and courage to treat
each day as a fresh start.

May our children come to know you, the one true
God,
and Jesus Christ, whom you have sent.

May your Holy Spirit help them to grow
in faith, hope, and love,
so they may know peace, truth, and goodness.

May their ears hear your voice.
May their eyes see your presence in all things.
May their lips proclaim your word.
May their hearts be your dwelling place.
May their hands do works of charity.
May their feet walk in the way of Jesus Christ,
your Son and our Lord.
Amen.
