Lenten Confessions Times

"So often, our own sins and failings seem to be an obstacle in encountering the love of our Lord, preventing us from taking the steps towards authentic and renewed conversion. Yet Jesus came not to call the righteous, but sinners. He is the Good Shepherd who seeks out the lost, the physician who comes to heal the sick. And one of his first acts after the Resurrection was to entrust to the Church the power to forgive sins in his name. Thus, in order to undergo an authentic and renewed conversion, and to encounter the Love of God, a focus on the Sacrament of Reconciliation – this most powerful encounter with divine mercy – is essential." - Thomas Cardinal Collins.

The April 2/3 Food Drive was a great success!

Thanks to the generous support of the Parishioners of St. Mary's, the Knights of Columbus delivered 3 pickup truck box loads of non perishable food and personal care items along with $700 in cash donations to Ste. Louise Outreach.

Ste. Louise very much appreciated your generous support.

Donating Flowers for Easter

This Easter season, we are asking our parishioners to help in our Easter decorations by offering to bring potted flowers for the Church. If you wish to dedicate your flowers to someone who has passed away, please put the name in the pot. Please drop off your Potted flowers from April 9th to 15th either to the office or behind the Altar in the church.

Thank you for your generosity.
God Bless, - The Liturgical Decoration Team

St. Mary's Meeting for Volunteers

As we move forward and re-engage in parish activities, your participation is essential. After all, the church is not a building but the people who partake in it. This is why we are asking for your collaboration in attending one of two Volunteer Meetings provided below:

Saturday, May 14, at 10:00 am to 12:00 pm or Tuesday, May 17, at 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm

We will unite in fellowship, update all information required and continue the process of strengthening our caring community.

Thank you in advance for your attendance. We look forward to seeing you then.

Request for Donations for Ukrainian Babies

Calling all talented knitters and sewers, your help is requested to keep Ukrainian orphan babies warm with blankets and other warm clothing.

There is an orphanage in Lviv that has 50 newborns since the start of the war. Another orphanage in Poland run by nuns is taking in orphaned babies from Ukraine. They are in desperate need of our help. With the help of St. Elias Ukrainian Catholic church, we will ship all donations to these orphanages. If you cannot knit, crochet, or sew blankets you can purchase baby Tylenol, baby Vitamin D drops, baby thermometers and items of this nature. You can also make a small monetary donation to offset the cost of shipping these items.

Ukrainian men are also in desperate need of underwear and socks.

You can drop off your donations at the church office (during office hours), or at the sacristy after the weekend masses. All items need to be collected by the weekend of April 23/24.

If you have any questions please reach out to: marionmac102@yahoo.ca

Thank you in advance for your kindness and willingness to help.

Being With Volunteer Training

A VIRTUAL EVENT HOSTED BY COMPASSIONATE COMMUNITY CARE

Tuesday, April 12 – 7 to 9 p.m. and Wednesday, April 13 – 7 to 9 p.m.

Join Compassionate Community Care for their free online event and training live on Zoom to gain the confidence to journey with those who are suffering, socially isolated, sick or dying, to renew their hope and purpose in life. Training will feature Alex Schadenberg, Executive Director of Euthanasia Prevention Coalition and Kathy Matusiak Costa, Director of Compassionate Community Care, to address this very important issue and how to overcome it with practical volunteer solutions and being with those who are most vulnerable. CCC has a dynamic and one-of-a-kind program designed to overcome the issues faced by people who are at greatest risk during these times. This training is over two days and each session is two hours.

Dominican Friars Youth Interfaith Video Contest

Youth Interfaith Video Contest

The Archdiocese of Toronto Office for Interreligious Dialogue invites students to participate in the Youth Interfaith Video Contest sponsored by the Dominican Friars of Toronto in collaboration with The Catholic Register, Interfaith Youth Alliance Movement (IYAM) and Salt + Light Media.

The theme of the contest is, “Cultivating Friendship and Solidarity,” in light of the United Nations’ International Day of Human Fraternity (February 4). This is a wonderful opportunity for youth to explore the theme of how our diverse faith traditions call on us to Rebuild, Restore and Renew our communities together, through cultivating friendship and solidarity. We encourage participants to not only highlight the contest theme but also to reach out to collaborate and engage with people of diverse cultural and religious backgrounds. Entries can come from an individual or a team.

The video may be up to three minutes maximum in length and submit by the contest closing date of Tuesday, April 19, 2022.

For complete contest details, please see the poster: <https://bit.ly/YouthInterfaithVideoContest2022>

Building Our Skills in Talking with One Another

Tuesday, April 12 – 7 to 9 p.m.

*A VIRTUAL EVENT RECOMMENDED BY THE
OFFICE FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN UNITY
AND RELIGIOUS RELATIONS WITH JUDAISM*

The Christian-Jewish Dialogue of Montreal has invited Dr. Saundra Sterling Epstein (Sunnie), a well-known Jewish educator and advocate, to facilitate a program that will focus on dialogue as a sacred experience deeply rooted in our faith traditions. Participants will learn and explore the joys and challenges inherent in dialogue. We hope this conversation will sharpen our communication skills and foster ever deeper encounters between Jews and Catholics in the Greater Toronto Area.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Level I, Part A Formation Course (children ages 3-6)

"Help me to come closer to God, by myself."

This first half of this introductory course for adults will explore the foundations of an internationally recognized approach to the religious education of children known as the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd highlights essential aspects of the Christian message that nurture a child's need to love and be loved and a child's capacity to enjoy God's presence in his or her life.

The Level 1 formation course offers an orientation to the theological concepts fundamental to this ministry with children. It introduces the foundational biblical and liturgical themes that we present to children, through a combination of conversation, reflection and presentation -- these delivered as we would share them with children. The course also offers opportunities to work with Montessori-style, catechetical materials that have been designed to nurture children's prayer.

This 90-hour course is especially designed for those who are interested in or already involved in caring for the spiritual lives of children, in a home, parish or school setting. It is a prerequisite for further adult formation courses in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Certificate Program (Levels II and III).

Completion of both Level 1, Part A (45 hours) and Level 1, Part B (45 hours) is required for certification.

Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Have you asked yourself.....?

6.- What does God reveal to man?

“God, in His goodness and wisdom, reveals himself to man. Through events and words, He reveals Himself and the plan of benevolence that He, Himself, has pre-established from eternity in Christ in favour of men.

This plan consists in making all men sharers in the divine life, through the grace of the Holy Spirit, in order to make them adoptive children in His Only-begotten Son.”

Comment by Monsignor Jose Ignacio Munilla:

“The question is ‘What does God reveal to man?’ and the answer is that He reveals Himself. That is, it is not that God tells you things, it is that you discover His intimacy. He shows Himself to man, it is very different.

For example, the grace of God is understanding the grace of God as things that God gives me and as the love of God that accompanies me. Well, the same thing happens with the revelation: revelation is not things that God tells me, but God Himself who shows me His intimacy and who offers me a friendship, that is a revelation. He further says that He does it out of His goodness. There is only one reason for revelation, which is the goodness of God and how He does it: through events and words.”

Mary, Mother of the Church, Pray for Us

Compendio del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

¿Te has preguntado.....?

6.- ¿Qué revela Dios al hombre?

Dios, en su bondad y sabiduría, se revela al hombre. Por medio de acontecimientos y palabras, se revela a sí mismo y el designio de benevolencia que él mismo ha preestablecido desde la eternidad en Cristo en favor de los hombres. Este designio consiste en hacer partícipes de la vida divina a todos los hombres, mediante la gracia del Espíritu Santo, para hacer de ellos hijos adoptivos en su Hijo Unigénito”.

Comentario De Monseñor José Ignacio Munilla

La pregunta es ¿qué revela Dios al hombre? y la respuesta es que se revela a sí mismo. Es decir, no es que Dios te diga cosas, es que descubre su intimidad, se muestra a sí mismo al hombre, es muy diferente. Es muy diferente, por ejemplo, entender la gracia de Dios como cosas que Dios me da, a entender la gracia de Dios como el amor de Dios que me acompaña, esto es la gracia de

Dios. Bueno, con la revelación pasa lo mismo: la revelación no es cosas que Dios me dice, sino Dios mismo que me muestra su intimidad y que me ofrece una amistad, esa es la revelación. Dice, además, que lo hace por su bondad. Solamente hay una razón, como dijimos, para la revelación, que es la bondad de Dios y ¿cómo lo hace? lo hace a través de acontecimientos y de palabras.

Saint Stanislaus, Bishop and Martyr 1030–1079

Patron Saint of Poland

Saint Stanislaus was the Bishop of Krakow, Poland, in the century just after that nation's baptism after the conversion of its king. Saint Stanislaus had various and serious disputes with Poland's King Bolesław II: over property, over a war, and over the King's moral failings. This led to Stanislaus excommunicating Bolesław, in seeming support of the King's enemies. Although the precise details of this King-Bishop conflict have been lost to history, it is clear that Bolesław was outraged by Stanislaus' sanction and labelled him a traitor. When the King entered Krakow's Cathedral for Mass, the service was immediately halted due to his excommunication. Bolesław went into a fury and actively sought Stanislaus' blood.

Saint Stanislaus, you fearlessly confronted those who threatened the well-being of the Church, and so gave a heroic example of martyrdom to an entire nation. Help all who seek your intercession to be as brave and forthright as you in the face of threats and adversity.

Annual Day of Reflection for Women

The Sisters of Life will lead us on a journey into the Heart of Woman to uncover and recover the Feminine Genius desperately needed in our day. "I would now like to speak directly to every woman, to reflect with her on the problems and the prospects of what it means to be a woman in our time... The Church 'desires to give thanks to the Most Holy Trinity for the 'mystery of woman' and for every woman – for all that constitutes the eternal measure of her feminine dignity, for the 'great works of God', which throughout human history have been accomplished in and through her • Thank you for the simple fact of being a woman! Through the insight which is so much a part of your womanhood you enrich the world's understanding and help to make human relations more honest and authentic." -St. John Paul II, Letter to Women

Did Christ Really Have to Suffer?

Sometimes we read the story of the Passion and wonder, Did Christ really have to suffer that way?

God could have just flipped a switch and forgiven our sins. After all, He is God.

Would God really inflict that kind of pain on his Son just because?

Christ's death on the Cross was a necessary part of our salvation. As we come to accept it, it gives new meaning to the phrases "carry our cross" and "sit at the foot of the Cross." Why?

Because the Cross changes everything.

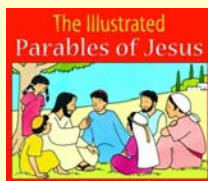

So why did Jesus suffer and die on the Cross to redeem us?
