Request for Donations for Ukrainian Babies

Calling all talented knitters and sewers, your help is requested to keep Ukrainian orphaned babies warm with blankets.

There is an orphanage in Lviv that has 50 newborns since the start of the war. Another orphanage in Poland run by nuns is taking in orphaned babies from Ukraine. They are in desperate need of our help. With the help of St. Elias Ukrainian Catholic church, we will ship all donations to these orphanages. If you cannot knit, crochet, or sew blankets you can purchase baby Tylenol, baby Vitamin D drops, baby thermometers and items of this nature. You can also make a small monetary donation to offset the cost of shipping these items.

Ukrainian men are also in desperate need of underwear and socks.

You can drop off your donations at the church office (during office hours), or at the sacristy after the weekend masses. All items need to be collected by the weekend of April 23/24.

Annual Day of Reflection for Women

The Sisters of Life will lead us on a journey into the Heart of Woman to uncover and recover the Feminine Genius desperately needed in our day. "I would now like to speak directly to every woman, to reflect with her on the problems and the prospects of what it means to be a woman in our time. The Church desires to give thanks to the Most Holy Trinity for the 'mystery of woman' and for every woman – for all that constitutes the eternal measure of her feminine dignity, for the 'great works of God', which throughout human history have been accomplished in and through her.

Thank you for the simple fact of being a woman! Through the insight which is so much a part of your womanhood you enrich the world's understanding and help to make human relations more honest and authentic." -St. John Paul II, Letter to Women

Please note: The recommended age of all attendees is 15 and over.

The Witness of a Life-Giving Faith
Monday, April 25
9 am to 3 pm

Manresa Jesuit Spiritual Renewal Centre
2325 Liverpool Rd., Pickering
EASTERN REGION

A day of reflection for men and women. In our environment of growing social polarization and division, in which our Christian faith is so often used as fuel for such polarization and divisions, many people see our faith in Christ as overly-defensive, political and life-depleting. But our faith in Christ was born to be life-giving, as we have been experiencing this Easter season. What does it mean to be alive in our faith in a Christ-like way? What do life-giving Christians in the spirit of the resurrection give witness towards? This day will include talks given by Fr. Trevor Scott, SJ. Confessions available and plenty of time for private prayer and to walk our grounds. Included is lunch and break. The day ends with Mass.

A suggested offering of $50 per person.

CATECHESIS OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Level I, Part A Formation Course (children ages 3-6)

“Help me to come closer to God, by myself.”

This first half of this introductory course for adults will explore the foundations of an internationally recognized approach to the religious education of children known as the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd.

The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd highlights essential aspects of the Christian message that nurture a child's need to love and be loved and a child's capacity to enjoy God's presence in his or her life.

The Level 1 formation course offers an orientation to the theological concepts fundamental to this ministry with children. It introduces the foundational biblical and liturgical themes that we present to children, through a combination of conversation, reflection and presentation -- these delivered as we would share them with children. The course also offers opportunities to work with Montessori-style, catechetical materials that have been designed to nurture children's prayer.

This 90-hour course is especially designed for those who are interested in or already involved in caring for the spiritual lives of children, in a home, parish or school setting. It is a prerequisite for further adult formation courses in the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Certificate Program (Levels II and III).

Completion of both Level 1, Part A (45 hours) and Level 1, Part B (45 hours) is required for certification.

Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Have you asked yourself.....?

7. What are the first stages of God's Revelation?

From the very beginning, God manifested himself to our first parents, Adam and Eve, and invited them to an intimate communion with Himself. After their fall, God did not dismiss His revelation to them but promised salvation for all their descendants. After the flood, God made a covenant with Noah, a covenant between Himself and all living beings.

Comment by Monsignor José Ignacio Munilla

God created Adam and Eve placing them in a state of unimaginable grace in which they lived in full intimacy with God. They enjoyed His presence, and yet, the terrible drama of sin broke and changed that intimacy. Before sin, Adam and Eve were always in the presence of God, but when they sinned, they hid from God. When sin took place, intimacy with God ceased (because sin is the loss of that intimacy with God). At the same time the good news is that God announced salvation and the beauty is that sin does not have the last word.

Mary, Mother of the Church, Pray for Us

Compendio del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

¿Te has preguntado.....?

7 ¿Cuáles son las primeras etapas de la Revelación de Dios?

Desde el principio, Dios se manifiesta a Adán y Eva, nuestros primeros padres, y les invita a una íntima comunión con Él. Después de la caída, Dios no interrumpe su revelación, y les promete la salvación para toda su descendencia. Después del diluvio, establece con Noé una alianza que abraza a todos los seres vivientes”

Comentario del Monseñor José Ignacio Munilla

A Adán y Eva, Dios les crea constituyéndoles en un estado de gracia impresionante, en la que ellos vivían en la plena intimidad con Dios, gozaban de la presencia de Dios, y sin embargo, el drama terrible del pecado rompe, cambia aquella situación de intimidad tan cercana que tenían con Dios y, curiosamente, en el momento en el que pecan, se esconden. Antes del pecado, Adán y Eva estaban en la presencia de Dios, en el momento en que pecan, se esconden, no pueden estar ante la presencia de Dios, no pueden aguantar la mirada de Dios. Lo que es hermoso es que, en el mismo momento en que acontece ese drama, el drama de la ruptura de la intimidad del hombre con Dios (habíamos recordado que la revelación era el comunicarnos que estábamos llamados a participar de la intimidad de Dios), que es el gran drama, es el drama por antonomasia, es el pecado (porque el pecado es la pérdida de esa intimidad con Dios), en ese momento, la buena noticia consiste en que Dios anuncia una salvación. Dios anuncia que ese pecado que ha acontecido, ese drama que ha acontecido no va a tener la última palabra.

Divine Mercy

True power pardons

Mercy is a superabundance of justice, not an exception to it. When faced with a wound to the common good, those responsible for repairing the damage do not have two contrary options: justice or mercy. Justice and mercy are not mutually exclusive. Mercy is a form of justice.

Mercy does not ignore the tears to the fabric of the common good slashed by crime and sin. Rightful authority notes the torn fabric, weighs the personal responsibility of the accused, and distributes justice precisely by granting mercy. Mercy does not turn a blind eye to justice, but fulfills its obligations to justice by going beyond them. After all, one cannot be absolved of having done nothing. Similarly, where there is no guilt there is no need of mercy.

Divine Mercy, do not hold our sins against us. Be a merciful Father who judges us in the fullness of Your power, punishing when needed, but granting mercy when we need it more, most especially when we are too saturated with pride to request it.

Prayer to foster a deeper love of Jesus in the Eucharist

*Glorious Michael de Sanctis, seraph inflamed with burning love of Jesus in the most holy Sacrament; thou who, passing days and nights in his Royal Presence, didst find there those dear delights which, inundating not thy heart alone but thy whole body with surpassing sweetness, threw thee into an ecstasy of joy, and who, rapt in thy God, didst feel thyself faint for love, being unable to support the torrent of consolations; vouchsafe, I pray thee, powerful advocate, to obtain for me lively faith, firm hope, and burning charity towards this priceless treasure, the precious pledge of everlasting glory; so that by thy intercession I may, through the whole course of my life, be numbered amongst the true worshipers of Jesus in the Holy Sacrament, and hereafter enjoy Him face to face, together with thee, in an eternity of bliss.

Amen.
