Parking Lot

Starting July 4th, and lasting approximately 26 days, Main Street entrance will be closed to entry and exit traffic, but this entrance may be used only to get to the South Parking lot. The East Parking lot entrance will be from Chapel Street only. We will try to reserve these spots for parishioners who have mobility issues. For parishioners who do not have mobility issues, Cardinal Leger S.S. School will be open for overflow parking. Since most people will need to walk a longer distance to get to mass, we can call these next weekends "Walk to Sunday Mass Weekends".

There will also be some short restriction to entrance doors to the church for sidewalk repairs. The Church Masses will follow the regular scheduled times.

We thank you for your understanding and patience during this construction project.

Bulletin and E-Newsletter Notice

During the months of July and August the Bulletin will be printed every other weekend and the e-newsletter will be emailed to parishioners who registered every other weekend as well.

Thank you for your understanding

CWL Flea Market - Thank you!

Our Flea Market was a huge success! We would like to thank all the CWL volunteers (including spouses and parishioners) who helped with the set up and clean up. A special thank you to all the volunteers who worked the tables. Thank you to all who supported the Catholic Women's League with your donations and purchases. Proceeds from the Flea Market will go towards supporting a girl in Kenya, a family in India and other charities.

Ukrainian Orphaned Babies in Need Can you help, again?

Weeks ago, many of you stepped up with great kindness and generosity to help our orphaned children from Ukraine. The baby blankets that parishioners worked so hard on became a blessing, since the older Ukrainian community, who would normally supply blankets for these babies, are now busy working on camouflage blankets for the soldiers. The shipment of our numerous gifts are on their way to Ukraine as we speak, and the cost of the shipment was in excess of $3,500 – we extend a special thanks to all those who gave monetary donations for the shipping costs. But there is still a great need for our orphans and their caregivers.

We are humbly asking for your help once again. Supplies are running low, and there is a great need of all kinds of baby food, baby cereal, baby food pouches. We realize that baby formula is in short supply, but this should not stop us from doing what we can. They are also running low on diapers, feminine hygiene products and Power/Energy Bars (which are used to feed the many volunteers who work long hours and have no time to cook for themselves). Monetary donations are once again greatly appreciated to offset the shipping costs.

We are asking that all donations be received by the weekend of July 9/10. Your donations can be dropped off at the church office during office hours or in the sacristy after any of our Sunday Masses. Monetary donations can be received as cash, or cheque – cheques can be made out to “Irene Galadza”, wife of Fr. Roman Galadza, Pastor at St. Elias Ukrainian Church.

Thank you for your willingness to help those in need.

Marion McFarlane (St. Mary's Ukrainian Orphanage support Coordinator)

Office of Catholic Youth

June brings high school graduation, and many Grade 12 students will soon be making the transition to university and college. Campus ministers in our archdiocese and across Canada want to help these young adults stay connected to and grow in their Catholic faith in their new environment. We've developed an easy online tool, Chaplaincy Connect, that students can use to connect with the campus ministry at their school. Chaplaincy Connect is an initiative of the Archdiocese of Toronto, and it's very effective at fostering a personal connection between students and campus ministers. If you're going to university or college in the fall, campus ministry is waiting for you! Connect with the Catholic community on your campus by visiting:

Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Have you asked yourself.....?

Nº 18 Why does Sacred Scripture teach the truth?

We say that Sacred Scripture teaches the truth because God Himself is its author: that is why we affirm that it is inspired and teaches without error the truths necessary for our salvation. The Holy Spirit inspired the human authors of Sacred Scripture, who have written what the Spirit has wanted to teach us. The Christian faith is not a "religion of the book," but of the Word of God, which is not "a written and silent word, but the Incarnate and living Word" (St. Bernard of Clairvaux).

We affirm, forcefully, that the ultimate author of Sacred Scripture is God Who has been inspired by the Holy Spirit to the point that we believe in inerrancy; the word inerrancy means that we believe in the absence of errors in Sacred Scripture. In the Sacred Scripture we see that God has guaranteed an inerrancy, to be preserved from error, because he has God as the ultimate author.

COMMENT BY MONSIGNOR JOSE IGNACIO MUNILLA

Remember that Sacred Scripture itself says, "Heaven and earth will pass, but my words will not pass." We have to distinguish that the words of men are full of theories, that there has been a great evolution in the thought and word of men: when we say one thing, sometimes we have to admit contrary things, and yet the Gospel that this Sunday has been proclaimed is the same in the past two thousand years. The Word of God has not contradicted Itself in these two thousand years, it is the same and remains the Living and Real Word for each one of us. One of the great differences between the Word of God and the word of man is that the Word of God is eternal, His Word does not make mistakes, does not contain errors like the word of men, which is transitory, imperfect and has many errors. Many times the words of men say one thing and then they are not able to realize it. The Word of God actually happens, It has that gift, which only God can give us.

Mary, Mother of the Church, Pray for Us

Compendio del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

¿Te has preguntado.....?

Nº 18 ¿Por qué decimos que la Sagrada Escritura enseña la verdad?

Decimos que la Sagrada Escritura enseña la verdad porque Dios mismo es su autor: por eso afirmamos que está inspirada y enseña sin error las verdades necesarias para nuestra salvación. El Espíritu Santo ha inspirado, en efecto, a los autores humanos de la Sagrada Escritura, los cuales han escrito lo que el Espíritu ha querido enseñarnos. La fe cristiana, sin embargo, no es una "religión del libro", sino de la Palabra de Dios, que no es "una palabra escrita y muda, sino el Verbo encarnado y vivo" (San Bernardo de Claraval).

Afirmamos, con contundencia, que el autor último de la Sagrada Escritura, es Dios. Dios ha hablado, ha sido inspirada por el Espíritu Santo hasta el punto de que creemos en la inerrancia; la palabra inerrancia quiere decir, que creemos en la ausencia de errores en la Sagrada Escritura. Es una cualidad el estar exento del error. En La Sagrada Escritura vemos que Dios ha garantizado una inerrancia, ser preservada del error, porque tiene a Dios como el autor último.

COMENTARIO DE MONSEÑOR JOSÉ IGNACIO MUNILLA

Acordaos de que la propia Sagrada Escritura dice, "cielo y tierra pasarán, pero mis palabras no pasarán". Nosotros tenemos que distinguir que las palabras de los hombres están llenas de teorías, qué gran evolución ha habido en el pensamiento y en la palabra de los hombres: cuando decimos una cosa, a veces hemos tenido que ir admitiendo cosas contrarias y, sin embargo, el Evangelio que este domingo se ha proclamado es el mismo en estos dos mil años. La Palabra de Dios no se ha contradicho en estos dos mil años, es la misma y sigue siendo Palabra Viva y real para cada uno de nosotros. Una de las grandes diferencias entre la Palabra de Dios y la palabra del hombre es que la Palabra de Dios es eterna, que la Palabra de Dios no comete errores, no contiene errores como la palabra de los hombres, que es transitoria, es imperfecta y tiene muchos errores. La palabra de Dios, otra gran característica, es que hace lo que dice, sin embargo, muchas veces las palabras de los hombres dicen una cosa y luego no son capaces de realizarla. La Palabra de Dios en realidad acontece, tiene ese don, que solamente Dios puede darnos.

St. Elizabeth of Portugal

*A widowed queen embraces
Sister Poverty*

Today's saint was also known as Elizabeth of Aragon. She was born into a royal Spanish family with a saint in its bloodline. Saint Elizabeth of Hungary was her great aunt and namesake. In a pious age, the piety of today's Saint Elizabeth stood out. She loved the Lord and all that it meant to be Catholic. She was wed to the King of Portugal at a tender age, moved to his land, and had a family with him. The holy child Elizabeth became the holy adult Elizabeth. She involved herself in matters of war, state, and politics. But she was more concerned with her own soul, the poor, and the sick.

Saint Elizabeth of Portugal, help us to see all wealth, of time or money, as a gift and an opportunity to serve the Lord and our fellow man. You promoted peace in your realm and in your family, in the spirit of Saint Francis. Help us to do the same.

7 Catholic Hacks for Getting More Out of Mass (feat. Lisa Cotter)

As faithful Catholics, we “keep Holy the Sabbath” by attending Holy Mass each Sunday, but often times it can feel like something's missing. We're easily distracted by the cute baby in front of us or catch ourselves making mental to-do lists. Today, Lisa Cotter shares 7 practical tips for staying engaged and getting more spiritual fruit out of every Sunday Mass.
