Parish Life

Message to the Parishioners of St. Mary's Parish, Brampton, Ontario

Dear Parishioners of St. Mary's,

In the Ordination Rite to the Priesthood, priests make a promise of obedience to their Diocesan Ordinary. Cardinal Collins is our Ordinary in the Archdiocese of Toronto and as such we are called to follow in obedience his decisions, which are made in consultation and in discernment.

Cardinal Collins has assigned Fr. Feliciano Merchan as Administrator of St. James Parish in Toronto. He will be replacing Fr. Gustavo Campo, who will be taking a six-month sabbatical.

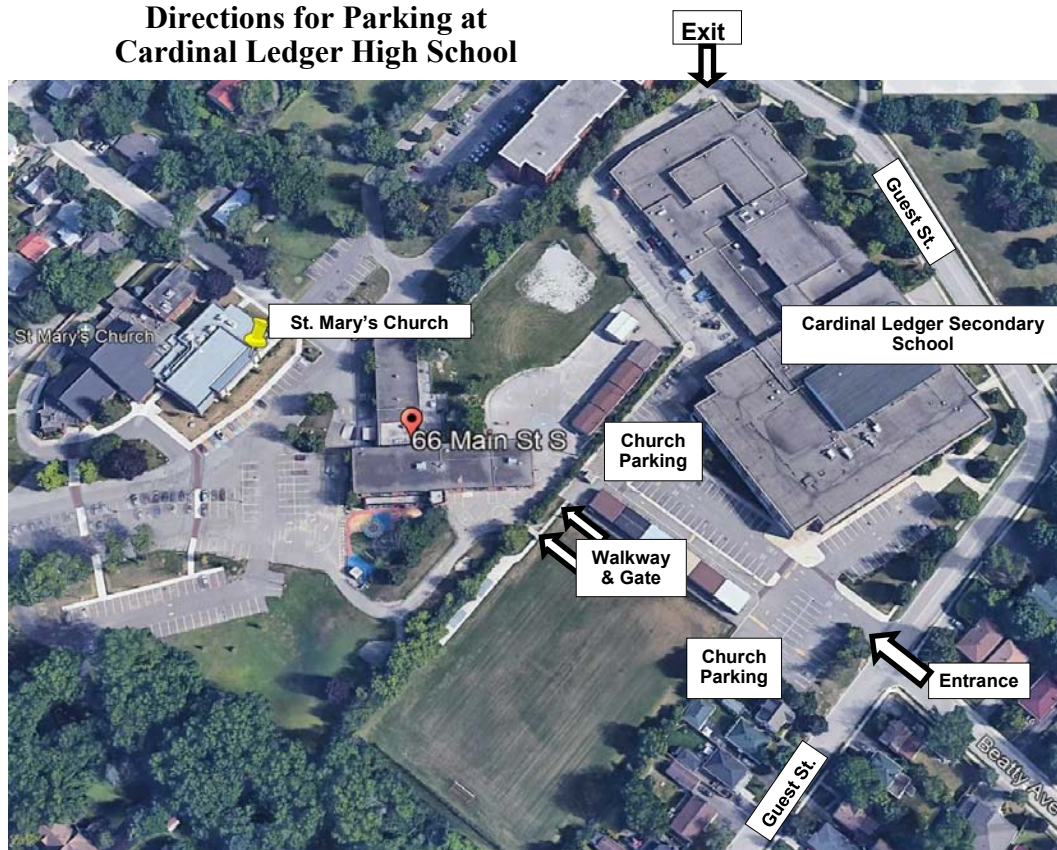

Fr. Feliciano will commence his ministry at St. James on August 1st, 2022.

We are saddened to see Fr. Feliciano leave us – he will be greatly missed. But as administrator he will take on a greater role of leadership and will be able to shepherd the parish community of St. James. In the coming days we will inform you of Fr. Feliciano's replacement here at St. Mary's.

In the meantime, I invite you to please keep Fr. Feliciano in your prayers as he prepares for his new role of ministry in the Vineyard of the Lord.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Fr. Liborio Amaral
Pastor of St. Mary's

Parking Lot

Starting July 4th, and lasting approximately 26 days, Main Street entrance will be closed to entry and exit traffic, but this entrance may be used only to get to the South Parking lot. The East Parking lot entrance will be from Chapel Street only. We will try to reserve these spots for parishioners who have mobility issues. For parishioners who do not have mobility issues, Cardinal Leger S.S. School will be open for overflow parking. Since most people will need to walk a longer distance to get to mass, we can call these next weekends "Walk to Sunday Mass Weekends".

There will also be some short restriction to entrance doors to the church for sidewalk repairs. The Church Masses will follow the regular scheduled times.

We thank you for your understanding and patience during this construction project.

Pope Francis saddened by Fourth of July shooting in Chicago

Pope Francis has decried the tragic shootings that killed six and wounded some 30 others during a Fourth of July parade in the Chicago suburb of Highland Park on Monday, appealing for a rejection of all forms of violence, and a respect for life at all its stages.

The Holy Father did so in a telegram sent to the Archbishop of Chicago, Cardinal Blase Cupich. In the telegram, sent on the Pope's behalf by Vatican Secretary of State, Cardinal Pietro Parolin, he said he was "deeply saddened" to learn "of the senseless shooting" that took place in the US, and asked the Cardinal to convey his spiritual closeness to all affected by this attack.

Have you asked yourself.....?

Nº 19 How should Holy Scripture be read?

Sacred Scripture must be read and interpreted with the help of the Holy Spirit and under the guidance of the Magisterium of the Church, according to three criteria:

- 1) Paying attention to the content and unity of the entire Writing.
- 2) Reading of Scripture in the living Tradition of the Church.
- 3) Respect for the analogy of faith, that is, for the cohesion between the truths of faith.

COMMENT BY MONSIGNOR JOSE IGNACIO MUNILLA

With the help of the Holy Spirit, the same Holy Spirit that has inspired the sacred authors, so that without error, they have captured those sacred pages that we are going to read. We ask that same Holy Spirit to help us read it properly. The Holy Spirit assisted the one who inspired that word, but the Holy Spirit also inspires the reader on a different level.

It is usually something very beautiful, entrusting ourselves and invoking our Mother, the Virgin Mary, before reading the Holy Scripture. Entrust yourself to her who accepted the Word of God in full docility. Just as when we go to confession, in the tradition of Spain, Mary is usually invoked - Ave María Purísima! It would also be good to invoke - Mary Ave Virgo audiens! Bird hearer of the Word enable us to read properly the Sacred Scripture under the action of the Holy Spirit.

The first condition to properly read Sacred Scripture: invoke the Holy Spirit and ask for inspiration through the intercession of Mary.

Mary, Mother of the Church, Pray for Us

Compendio del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

¿Te has preguntado.....?

Nº 19 ¿Cómo se debe leer la Sagrada Escritura?

La Sagrada Escritura debe ser leída e interpretada con la ayuda del Espíritu Santo y bajo la guía del Magisterio de la Iglesia, según tres criterios:

- 1) Atención al contenido y a la unidad de toda la Escritura.
- 2) Lectura de la Escritura en la Tradición viva de la Iglesia.
- 3) Respeto de la analogía de la fe, es decir, de la cohesión entre las verdades de la fe.

COMENTARIO DE MONSEÑOR JOSÉ IGNACIO MUNILLA

Bajo la ayuda del Espíritu Santo, el mismo Espíritu Santo que ha inspirado a los autores sagrados, para que sin error, hayan plasmado esas páginas sagradas que vamos a leer, a ese mismo Espíritu Santo, le pedimos que nos ayude a leerlo adecuadamente. El Espíritu Santo asistió al que inspiró esa palabra, pero también el Espíritu Santo inspira al lector en un nivel diferente.

Por cierto, suele ser algo muy hermoso el encomendarnos e invocar a nuestra Madre, a la Virgen María, antes de leer la Sagrada Escritura. Encomendarse a ella que acogió la Palabra de Dios en plena docilidad. Igual que cuando vamos a confesarnos, en la tradición de España, se suele invocar a María: ¡Ave María Purísima! También sería bueno invocar a María: ¡Ave Virgo audiens! Ave oyente de la Palabra, para nosotros poder leer bien la Sagrada Escritura bajo la acción del Espíritu Santo.

La primera condición para leer bien la Sagrada Escritura: invocar al Espíritu Santo y pedir, por intercesión de María, Inspiración.

María, Madre de la Iglesia, Ruega por Nosotros

St. Mary Magdalene

*An Apostle to the Apostles
First spreads the Good News*

Saint Mary Magdalene was among that troop of women who congregated on the outer edge of the twelve Apostles. These were probably women of means, who “provided for” Jesus and the Apostles “out of their resources” (Lk 8:3). When these women are named, Mary Magdalene is always named first, similar to Saint Peter’s position in the listing of the Apostles. Mary Magdalene is named many more times in the Gospels than most of the Apostles themselves, signaling her importance. The Gospel of Luke relates that seven demons were driven from her (Lk. 8: 2)

Saint Mary Magdalene, assist all who seek your intercession to be humble followers of Christ, doing, from the margins, what is necessary to carry forward the ministry of Christ’s Church, quietly accomplishing God’s will without recognition except for its eternal reward.

Lost Gospels or False Gospels?

Christians and many non-Christians have long accepted Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John—the four Gospels of the New Testament—as the only reliable accounts of the life and teaching of Jesus of Nazareth. Recent media stories and certain best-selling books have alerted the public to alternative writings about Jesus, leading many people—including many believers—to wonder why we should consider only the four New Testament Gospels as “gospel truth.”

Pray About It? Or Just Do It?

Have you heard the phrase, “Ora et Labora” before? What about the maxim, “Pray as if everything depends on God. And work as if everything depends on you.” Today Fr. Mike breaks down the Benedictine charism of prayer AND work and offers us some food for thought when tempted to fall into fatalism or quietism and remove our will from the equation.
