Make a Bigger Impact with a Gift of Securities

A donation of securities is the most efficient way to give charitably. With a donation of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds) the capital gains does not apply, allowing you to give more; you also receive a charitable tax receipt for your donation. Gifts of securities can provide support to the many charities of the Archdiocese of Toronto such as your parish, ShareLife, St. Augustine's Seminary, The Shepherds' Trust, Office for Refugees and many others.

For further information, contact the Development Office at: 416-934-3400 ext. 561/519 or development@archtoronto.org.

The Pre-Authorized Giving Plan

The Archdiocese of Toronto has established a Pre-Authorized Giving (PAG) plan to assist you in your support of the work of the parish through your regular parish offerings. To accomplish the mission entrusted to us by Christ, the parishes depend entirely on the generosity of their parishioners.

Pre-Authorized Giving allows you to give to your parish through scheduled monthly transfers from your bank account or credit card. These funds are then deposited directly into the parish account.
There are various benefits of participating in Pre-Authorized Giving, both for you and for your parish.

Advantages for you:

- ☐ The convenience of having your offering automatically contributed to the parish.
- ☐ Knowing you continue to support the parish
even when you are away.
- ☐ Continual support of ministries and programs funded through the parish.

Advantages for the Parish:

- ☐ Regular, dependable contributions to the parish.
- ☐ Reduction of cash on hand.
- ☐ Reduction of paperwork.

For information on how to enroll, please contact the parish office or email: development@archtoronto.org.

Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church

Have you asked yourself.....?

Nº 20 What is the canon of Scripture?

The canon of the Scriptures is the complete list of all the writings that the Apostolic Tradition has made the Church discern as sacred. Such a canon comprises forty-six writings of the Old Testament and twenty-seven of the New.

COMMENT BY MONSIGNOR JOSE IGNACIO MUNILLA

We are asked the question: What is the canon of Scripture? The canon expression will seem strange to many, to some it will sound like a printer. So the question is where does the word canon come from?

I think it is good that we make this reflection.

Etymologically, the word canon comes from cane, reed, which was a kind of measuring stick, measuring stick as a criterion of truth; that is where the expression was formulated: "the Canon of the sacred books". The Church was discerning which books were the Word of God and recognized as inspired by the Holy Spirit and which ones were not. Already in the Old Testament, the Jewish people, without ever having used the word canon, made this discernment of which of the books they read were inspired by the Holy Spirit and could be considered as the Word of God and which were not. It was especially in the year 70, when the temple of Jerusalem was being destroyed, the moment in which the Jewish world definitively made that classification. The temple in Jerusalem had been destroyed, a diaspora came and the Jewish world needed to have that discernment, so when dispersed throughout the world, the Jews would be aware of what that canon was.

Mary, Mother of the Church, Pray for Us

Compendio del Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica

¿Te has preguntado.....?

Nº 20 ¿Qué es el canon de las Escrituras?

El canon de las Escrituras es el elenco completo de todos los escritos que la Tradición Apostólica ha hecho discernir a la Iglesia como sagrados. Tal canon comprende cuarenta y seis escritos del Antiguo Testamento y veintisiete del Nuevo.

COMENTARIO DE MONSEÑOR JOSÉ IGNACIO MUNILLA

Se nos plantea la pregunta ¿Qué es el canon de la Escritura? La expresión canon a muchos les parecerá rara, a algunos les sonará una impresora, quizás.

Entonces, la pregunta es ¿de dónde viene la palabra canon? creo que es bueno que hagamos esta reflexión, de hecho, a ello contesta el nº 20. Etimológicamente la palabra canon viene de caña, de junco, que era una especie de vara de medir, vara de medir como un criterio de la verdad; de ahí es de dónde se formuló esa expresión: "el Canon de los libros sagrados". La Iglesia fue discerniendo qué libros eran Palabra de Dios y eran reconocidos como inspirados por el Espíritu Santo y cuáles no. Ya en el Antiguo Testamento, el pueblo judío, sin haber utilizado nunca la palabra canon, hicieron ese discernimiento, de cuáles de los libros que se leían eran inspirados por el Espíritu Santo y podían ser considerados como Palabra de Dios y cuáles no. Fue especialmente en el año 70, cuando se estaba destruyendo el templo de Jerusalén, el momento en el que el mundo judío hizo definitivamente esa clasificación: de qué textos del Antiguo Testamento consideraban Palabra de Dios. El templo de Jerusalén había sido destruido, vino una diáspora y el mundo judío necesitaba tener ese discernimiento, para que, al dispersarse por el mundo entero, los judíos tuviesen conciencia de cuál era ese canon.

Transfiguration of the Lord

A preview of coming attractions, our destination is a person more than a place

The Christian believes in the resurrection of the body and life everlasting in that body.

We believe this because of the appearances of the risen Christ after His resurrection, because of His bodily Ascension into heaven, because the gospels specifically mention the empty tomb, and because of the events of today's feast. The Transfiguration shows the splendor of truth. It is a peek into the life of heaven, where we see that Christ will not shed His human skin. Christ will bring His humanity to heaven and glorify it. This exaltation of flesh and blood is one reason why the Church has such immense respect for the human body.

Lord of the Transfiguration, Your glorified body gives us hope of the glories to come in heaven, where You will be the destination. May Your glorified body inspire all Christians to live well their body-soul uniqueness on earth until they are perfected in heaven through You.

Life lessons from a Catholic astronaut Chris Stefanick Show

So this week, Chris thought he'd revisit the chat he had with his friend and astronaut General Kevin Chilton.

They talked about:

- The effect of family on your life.
- Finding your path with the help of faith (and a little common sense).
- Things we can all look back on and be grateful for.
