SEASON OF CREATION

Season of Creation 2022

The annual event of Season of Creation begins on September 1, the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, and ends on October 4, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, patron saint of ecology.

Each year an ecumenical steering committee selects a theme, and this year inspiration is taken from Psalm 19:1-4 that proclaims, "Listen to the Voice of Creation."

A short video to introduce this season may be watched via this link, <https://youtu.be/WyjUTvGmlil>

The Celebration Guide for 2022 provides detailed information on how observe this season in parishes, schools and at home.

Please see <https://seasonofcreation.org/>.

May this Season of Creation renew our Christian unity through our common efforts to respond to the voices on the margins of society and to care for the earth as good stewards in our discipleship.

Nº 22 ¿Qué importancia tiene el Nuevo Testamento para los cristianos?

El Nuevo Testamento, cuyo centro es Jesucristo, nos transmite la verdad definitiva de la Revelación divina. En él, los cuatro Evangelios de Mateo, Marcos, Lucas y Juan, siendo el principal testimonio de la vida y doctrina de Jesús, constituyen el corazón de todas las Escrituras y ocupan un puesto único en la Iglesia.

COMENTARIO DE MONSEÑOR JOSÉ IGNACIO MUNILLA

(Transcripción aproximada del audio)

Se subraya el hecho de que el Nuevo Testamento es la culminación de la Revelación, es la Revelación definitiva de Jesucristo. Es bueno recordar que ese Nuevo Testamento incluye los cuatro Evangelios, el libro de los Hechos de los Apóstoles, las cartas Paulinas, las cartas Apostólicas y el libro del Apocalipsis. Todo ellos conforman el Nuevo testamento y todo es, esa culminación de la Revelación, que tiene como centro a Jesucristo. Esto es importante decirlo, porque a veces, podríamos cometer un error, y afirmar que hacemos una opción evangélica, y cuando utilizamos la palabra evangélico, estamos como excluyendo las cartas de San Pablo, lo cual sería absurdo, pues las cartas de San Pablo forman parte, también, del Nuevo Testamento. Por ejemplo, San Carlos de Foucauld, tiene una famosa expresión que dice: “Si no vivimos el Evangelio, Jesús no vive en nosotros. Pero, sería incorrecto interpretar, ese “no vivir el Evangelio”, excluyendo el resto de los libros del Nuevo Testamento. Cuando decimos “vivir el Evangelio”, es como designar el conjunto del Nuevo Testamento bajo el término “Evangelio”, “los Evangelios”, porque ciertamente, son el corazón del Nuevo Testamento, pero tenemos que tener cuidado, porque algunas personas parecen no valorar, e incluso, rechazar las cartas de San Pablo, que forman parte de ese Nuevo Testamento.

Theme for the 108th World Day of Migrants and Refugees

The theme announced by His Holiness Pope Francis for the 108th World Day of Migrants and Refugees is “Building the Future with Migrants and Refugees.” In his message, Pope Francis reminds us that inclusion of those most vulnerable is the necessary condition for full citizenship in God’s Kingdom. Indeed, the Lord says, “Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me a drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, sick and you took care of me, in prison and you visited me” (Mt 25:34-36).

What the Assumption Tells Us About Heaven

Fr. Mark-Mary compares Mary’s reuniting with Jesus in heaven to a soldier being reunited with his family after battle. The Solemnity of the Assumption offers a foretaste of our reunion with God. No wonder the Church makes this day a holy day of obligation. Maybe we should take a closer look at what God is telling us through Mary’s assumption.

The Passion of St. John the Baptist

A desert-dwelling, locust-eating, weed-wearing, celibate ascetic dies for marriage

Saint John Vianney was so opposed to the dances held routinely in his small town of Ars that he dedicated a small chapel in his parish church to Saint John the Baptist. At its entrance was painted, perhaps somewhat tongue in cheek, a warning of the evil effects produced by lust and drink.

“His head was the price of a dance.”

Saint John the Baptist’s head was, indeed, the wage rendered by an older man for the satisfaction of watching a young girl dance at his birthday party. More remotely, however, John’s beheading was not caused by a suggestive dance. He paid with his head for poking the bear. John denounced King Herod Antipas, to his face, for divorcing his lawful wife and taking as his own Herodias, his sister-in-law, the wife of his still living half-brother Philip. (Convolved family blood lines also made Herodias Herod’s niece.) John the Baptist died a martyr for marriage.

Saint John the Baptist, your penitential life ended abruptly when you spoke the truth to power. You did not flinch, vacillate, or equivocate. You were imprisoned and then killed for defending the dignity of marriage. Help us to be as courageous and plainspoken as you.

The Importance of Taking Vacation

The summer months bring more than sunny weather and BBQs; it is the perfect time to step away from the workplace and use some vacation time to rest and restore. However, the reality is that many employees do not take full advantage of their allotted vacation time. A survey done by Expedia.ca found that more than one-quarter of Canadians go a year or more without taking a holiday.

Vacation doesn’t have to mean getting on a plane and going to far-away destinations, but taking a break IS important. There are many benefits of vacation both to our productivity and to our health.

When you feel overworked, burnout occurs and productivity suffers. This not only affects our own performance, but the entire team. When we take the opportunity to step away from our projects and deadlines, we can recharge and return to work with new energy and focus. When we allow ourselves to relax, we are able to open creative parts of our minds that we may not always be using on a day-to-day basis.

We all understand that work can be a major source of stress. Chronic stress can lead to serious health problems and it can also take an emotional toll and negatively affect our mental health. Taking regular vacation time away from work can decrease stress levels, reduce the incidence of burnout, improve the immune system, reduce the risk of heart disease, increase happiness, improve sleep and build relationships by providing a positive work-life balance.

Rest is also essential to our spiritual health, Pope Francis once said, “Rest is so necessary for the health of our minds and bodies, and often so difficult to achieve due to the many demands placed on us. But rest is also essential for our spiritual health, so that we can hear God’s voice and understand what He asks of us.”
