Parish Life

Dear sisters and brothers in the Lord,
This weekend I begin my series of Sermons on the GIFT that the Eucharist is to us and the World. This weekend I will try to explain how the Eucharist is EVER OLD and EVER NEW – that what Jesus did at the Last Supper we continue to do even now.

What we do this Sunday we have done for 2000 years. Although there are slight changes and additions to what our brothers and sisters did at their Eucharistic Celebration in the first Century, yet the main core of our Eucharist stays the same.

If a Christian from the first century were to enter our Catholic Church in the celebration of our Eucharist, they would find a natural link to what they have KNOWN as the EUCHARIST.

If you have family members who don't go to mass on a regular basis, you might want to invite them to join you in these next weeks where I will present my series of Sermons on the Eucharist. Invite them to join us at the Eucharistic Sacrifice of our Lord so that they may come to know the beauty and importance of the Eucharist.

Blessings,
Fr. Liborio

 2023 Envelopes - Important Notice!

We have just started our new box of SUNDAY ENVELOPES FOR THE CALENDAR YEAR 2023. We ask that you commence using them and only immediately for the calendar year 2023.

Please DO NOT use envelopes from previous years for the following reasons:

- The number on your new box of envelopes for 2023 is NOT the same as the number on your last year's box of envelopes. The person on file will get your tax benefit - not you.
- We cannot update your personal information if you do not complete the first three envelopes for this current year.
- Our Sunday Counters are parishioners like you. Teams of 3 or 4 volunteers give up hours of their time on Sundays to sort, count, and balance money to envelopes. Please do your part to help them and our office staff who posts your donation to your account.

Thank You for your Offering!

Saint Agnes, Virgin and Martyr

Patron Saint of those seeking chastity and purity, engaged couples, rape victims, gardeners, young girls, and Girl Scouts

According to one tradition, the daughter of Emperor Constantine the Great—the first emperor to convert to Christianity and legalize its practice—contracted leprosy. Her name was Constantina.

Seeking a cure, she approached the tomb of this young virgin-martyr and tearfully beseeched her intercession. The tradition further states that Constantina was indeed healed, and, in gratitude, her father commissioned the building of a church over Saint Agnes' grave. To this day a church adorns that same spot and it is named in honor of Saint Agnes. To this day the faithful beseech Agnes' intercession in the same fashion as Constantina in days of old.

Saint Agnes, at a tender age you gave your life to Christ, choosing Him alone as your Spouse. Your fidelity to Christ was unwavering, showing you preferred death over betrayal. Please pray for me, that I may also choose Christ as the Spouse of my soul and be faithful to Him even until death. Saint Agnes, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.

Do You Know Jesus? Are You Sure? (feat. Tanner Kalina)

To know Jesus and to know about Jesus are two different things. We should always want to know the Lord more, but where do we start? Today, Tanner Kalina tells us about the four habits of the Christian life, encouraging us to seek a more intimate and steadfast relationship with the Lord.

Unpacking Pope Benedict's Life and Writings | Chris Stefanick Show

We can all use some hope at the start of a new year. Lucky for us, Pope Benedict XVI wrote a whole encyclical about it.

So in honor of his recent passing, we're going to explore what this great pope said about the virtue of hope.

To do that, we're joined by Fr. Brian Larkin, who teaches at the Augustine Institute. Not only is Fr.

Brian really smart, he can take Pope Benedict's deep teaching and break it down into bits we can all digest.

If you've been inspired by Pope Benedict and want to learn more about him, then you're in for a treat!
