St. Augustine's Seminary Lay Formation Program: Topic: Lenten Retreat: A Spirituality for Catholic Teachers

Saturday, March 4th, 2023
9:30am to 3:30pm

IN-PERSON/VIRTUAL EVENT RUN BY
ST. AUGUSTINE'S SEMINARY

In collaboration with the Archdiocese of Toronto's St. Monica Institute and the Toronto Catholic Teachers' Guild, we are pleased to offer a Lenten retreat day that will draw us into the important work of education with presenter Deacon Doug McManaman, Chaplain of the Toronto chapter of the Catholic Teachers' Guild. A spirituality for Catholic teachers certainly speaks most directly to those who work within the more formal community of Catholic education, but the theme of this retreat will speak to all Catholics, for all of us live and participate in the world of Catholic education, and its critical importance touches us all. We extend a warm invitation to all for this day of reflection, with a particular welcome to all Catholic teachers, administrators, support staff, and to all who work in the homeschooling community.

Religious Education and Faith Formation

St. Gregory of Narek, Abbot and Doctor of the Church

The Apostles Saint Jude Thaddeus and Saint Bartholomew are believed to have traveled to Armenia to share the Gospel. In 301 A.D., the Armenian king was converted who, in turn, made Christianity the kingdom's official religion, making Armenia the first nation to do so. In the centuries that followed, churches and monasteries were built, the faith was taught, liturgies were celebrated, and an extensive Christian culture emerged.

In the year 451 A.D., the Armenian Church separated from the Church of Rome over disagreements on doctrine from the Council of Chalcedon. Though the Armenian Church remained an apostolic Church, being founded by the Apostles, it became separated from the pope. Its Sacraments and life of prayer continued, but the division also continued. In recent decades, greater attempts at unification have been made, and the saint we honor today is the most recent attempt by the Roman Church to more fully unite with the Eastern Church of Armenia.

Challenge Your Kids to Embrace a "Carlo Acutis Lent"

Lent is often a time when both adults and children choose a Lenten sacrifice, choosing something to give up for 40 days.

The traditional sacrifice for children has always been sweets — seeing if they can last until Easter Sunday without partaking in any yummy treats.

While that can often be a difficult sacrifice for children, have you ever challenged them to give up video games?

Should We Be Sad During Lent?

Given the fact that we're told to fast, pray hard, and give alms during Lent, there is a tendency to think Lent should be sad. But this isn't true.

Christ says:

"And when you fast, do not look dismal, like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces that their fasting may be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward. But when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, that your fasting may not be seen by men but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will reward you."

Matthew 6:16-18

Lent is supposed to help you bear the fruit of the Holy Spirit, which is "love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control" (Galatians 5:22). If our Lenten sacrifices are not bearing this fruit, something is wrong.
