Saint Turibius of Mogrovejo

Patron Saint of Peru, Latin American bishops, native people's rights
Canonized in by Pope Benedict XIII on December 10, 1726

On November 16, 1532, a small group of Spanish conquerors captured the Inca ruler Atahualpa in modern-day Peru. The Spaniards arrived in the New World as explorers but were mostly interested in enriching themselves with silver and gold, of which the Incas had plenty. After receiving a room of gold and two rooms of silver as a ransom for Atahualpa, the Spaniards killed him anyway. Then they continued to conquer others, until 1572, when the last of the indigenous rulers was defeated. Despite their Christian heritage, the Spaniards could be brutal; however, their presence enabled missionaries to arrive and begin the work of sharing the Gospel with the native people. In 1541, Pope Paul III established the Diocese of Lima and appointed its first bishop who served for thirty-six years. Today's saint, Saint Turibius of Mogrovejo, was born three years before the Diocese of Lima was established (It became an archdiocese in 1546.) and would become Lima's third archbishop.

Week Five | Restore: Lent with Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT

In the Week Five video of the Restore Lent series, Sr. Miriam James Heidland, SOLT, helps you discover the true meaning of forgiveness. She explains that forgiveness is not condoning bad behavior or letting someone "off the hook," rather it is letting your grief and anger come to the surface so that you can allow the Lord to heal your broken heart. We are each in need of God's grace to be able to forgive as freely and frequently as Jesus asks.
