Religious Education and Faith Formation

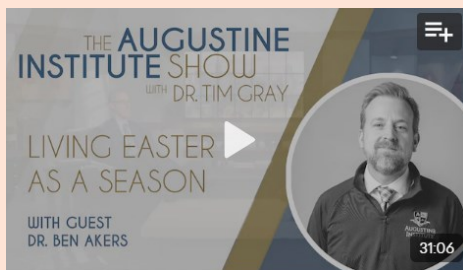

St. Mark the Evangelist (April 25th)

*Patron Saint of attorneys, captives, shoemakers,
notaries and glass workers*

Though little is known for certain about Saint Mark's life, the Gospel attributed to him is unquestionably one of the most important scripts ever written. In a nearly breathless way, Mark recounts Jesus' public ministry in concise and vivid detail. The shortest of the four Gospels is packed with information. Mark's Gospel was most likely written primarily for Roman Gentiles, rather than for Jews, which is why he often describes various Jewish customs to the reader. The Acts of the Apostles and various Epistles speak of "Mark" as well as "John Mark." Most scholars believe that Mark and John Mark are the same person and the Gospel writer. Saint Mark is believed to have been born in Cyrenaica, modern-day Libya, which was under Roman rule at the time. "John" is his Jewish name, and "Mark" his Roman name.

Is My Confession Really a Secret? (The Seal of Confession Explained)

Today, Fr. Mike tells us about the story of the patron saint of confessors, St. John Nepomucene, who gave up his life because he refused to break something called the "seal of confession", which is a sacred duty of a priest to never reveal what is said in the confessional.

God himself established the priesthood as the mediators of reconciliation in the Gospel (John 2:21-22). The Church takes this sacred responsibility so seriously, that any priest who breaks the seal of confession it is automatically excommunicated.
