Reconciliation

Fridays 6:00pm - 6:45pm

Saturdays 4:00pm - 4:45pm

My sacrificial Lord, You gave Your precious life away to all out of love. The total self-giving of Your life resulted in the salvation of those who will accept this glorious gift. Help me to not only open myself to this freely given gift of Yours but to also imitate Your selfless life by giving myself in service of You and others.

Saint Lawrence, deacon and martyr, pray for us.

Jesus, I trust in You.

Religious Education and Faith Formation

Saint Thomas the Apostle (July 3)

Today's saint, known as "Doubting Thomas," is Christianity's icon of doubt. He loves, serves, and follows the Lord. Upon hearing of the death of Lazarus, Christ decides to go to Judea, where He has previously come under attack. The Apostles are concerned for Christ's safety, but Thomas supports Him, saying, "Let us also go, that we may die with him" (Jn 11:16). Thomas is strong and generous. But he is also a man, so he does what men do—he doubts. Thomas was told by his co-Apostles that the Lord is risen and has appeared to them. Yet still Thomas doubts. He will only believe if he can place his hands in Christ's very wounds. To satisfy his skepticism, Thomas joins the others and waits patiently on the Sunday after Easter. The risen Lord appears again in the same place. "Peace be with you," He says to all. And then to Thomas himself, "Put your finger here and see my hands... Do not doubt but believe." "My Lord and my God!" is all the flabbergasted Thomas can muster in response (Jn 20:24-29). Thomas' simple declaration of faith—"My Lord and my God!"—is whispered by millions of faithful at the consecration at Mass, words of faith forged from the anvil of doubt.

A Catholic Guide to Summer Break

Summer break is a time for rest, recreation, and renewal. But what do we do with that space? Today, Fr. Mark-Mary suggests that your day "off" might be the day you need to turn your willpower "on", and he gives us some concrete advice on how to make sure we're doing that.

A Crippled Boy

In this episode narrated by Matthew Jamil and featuring Stella O'Beid, we hear about a miracle God chose to perform through Father Solanus. A young couple comes to visit Father Solanus to ask for his prayers for their son, who cannot walk. Through their meeting, we learn that extraordinary faith in God can lead to realities we thought were impossible.

Breath of God Episode 10 - The Spirit and the Desert

"[Jesus] was led by the Spirit into the desert for forty days, to be tempted by the devil." - Luke 4:1
On the day Jesus was baptized, the Holy Spirit anointed him. Immediately after this event the Holy Spirit led Jesus to the desert. The desert was a place of isolation, death, and defeat, but Jesus was led to the desert so that it may be forever changed into a place of grace. The Spirit led Jesus to the desert and also protected and cared for him while he was there. The desert is a part of every Christian's life but it does not have to be a place of despair or isolation. The Holy Spirit is present to life's deserts and when we experience his presence it changes our spiritual life. The desert is no longer a place to be feared but can be a profound encounter with Jesus.
