Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary (Aug 15)

Today's Solemnity has been referred to as the Blessed Virgin Mary's rest, birth into Heaven, entombment, and falling asleep. The earliest written references to the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary date back to the third and fourth centuries. In the seventh century, Saint John Damascene wrote beautifully about the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary in three sermons.

Today, just outside of the ancient city of Jerusalem, next to the Garden of Gethsemane, pilgrims can find an ancient church, believed to have been the original burial site of the Blessed Virgin Mary, from which she rose and was assumed into Heaven. Like Christ her Son, her tomb is empty.

Dearest Mother, assumed into Heaven, you are the Immaculate Conception, the Ever-Virgin Mary, the Mother of God. As we honor your glorious Assumption into Heaven, please pray for me and for all your children. In Heaven, you are honored by your Son and your prayers are most effective. I believe this with all my heart and entrust myself, my family, our Church, and the entire world to your motherly care and intercession. Mary, assumed into Heaven, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You.

What REAL Faith Looks Like

We must place our faith in Christ in order to allow Him to save us. But what does it actually mean to have faith? What does it look like? Does it mean you just “agree” with everything Jesus and His Church say? Or is it deeper than that?

Today, Fr. Mike draws a sharp distinction between faith and mere “agreement”, and calls us to a more radical trust in our Savior.

A Leg To Stand On

In this episode narrated by Joseph Schueneman and featuring Elle and Lizzy Uhlarik, we hear the story of how Father Solanus aided his own family in a time of distress, even in his old age. By sharing his trust in God's goodness, Father Solanus calms the worries of his dear relatives and teaches us not to let scary things in life bother us, for God holds every event of our lives in his loving hands.

Breath of God Episode 13 - The Spirit's Witness

"We are witnesses of these things, as is the Holy Spirit that God has given to those who obey him."
- Acts 5:32

The Holy Spirit gives witness to Jesus. We are not able to understand fully who Jesus is on our own strength, intellect, and power. The Holy Spirit aids us in moving from our limited intellectual perception of who Christ is and what He has done for us to a life-changing understanding of Christ.

It is also the Holy Spirit that inspires us to give witness to Christ by our words and actions. This segment will look at how we are best able to cooperate with the Holy Spirit so that we may see Jesus as He is and give witness to Him
