Religious Education and Faith Formation

The Conversion of St. Paul the Apostle (Jan 25)

When Saul was in his early twenties, Jesus of Nazareth began His public ministry during which He challenged the rigid interpretations that the Pharisees taught about the Law of Moses. Jesus was crucified three years later when Saul was about twenty-five. Now a Pharisee himself, Saul was diametrically opposed to Jesus' teachings, believing that they were in opposition to the Law of Moses that he had come to know so well through the distorted lens of the pharisaical teachings. After Jesus' crucifixion, Saul zealously devoted himself to persecuting those who were Jesus' followers. Even when his own teacher, Gamaliel, recommended the followers of Jesus be ignored, Saul could not hold himself back.

Have You Forgotten What God Has Done For You?

God commands His beloved people all throughout scripture: "Remember." And this command continues to resound for us today.

Remember the good that God has done for you.

Remember the times He has delivered you.

Remember when you thought you had nothing left but He gave you strength.

Today, Fr. Mike beseeches us to remember in the darkness what God has revealed in the light, and to never forget what He's done for us.

The Elements of the Catholic Mass

Elements of the Catholic Mass is designed to help the faithful better appreciate the beauty of the Mass. Featuring Fr. Douglas Martis, former director of the Liturgical Institute, the program consists of thirty-one beautifully produced short videos.

Bows in the Mass

The liturgy is comprised not only of words and music, it also includes gestures. These, too, are sacramental signs because they show in a visible way the hidden devotion of our hearts. A bow signifies reverence or honor to persons or the symbols that represent these persons.
