It's often described as time stopping, but for those of us who work in hospice and palliative care, we know the diagnosis is just the beginning. The Hope Line was created to help newly diagnosed patients, caregivers and family members identify resources that can support them on their end of life journey. It's easy to access (just call 416-619-5700) and takes a customized approach with one of our compassionate team members working directly with callers to help pinpoint resources with hospice palliative care options within their home community. The Hope Line is open to any individual residing within the Archdiocese of Toronto who requires end-of-life support services and holistic care for patients, caregivers and extended family and friend networks.
