Welcome and Quick Update

Welcome everyone and thank you for your great support

Request for Mass intentions:

Because we are still under lockdown, we are not able to accommodate requests for mass intentions. The mass intentions that we are currently announcing during our weekday masses are for those intentions that had been previously booked prior to the Lockdown. We ask you to be patient in your request for mass intentions until we are out of lockdown and can resume our public celebrations of the masses.

" PLEASE, DO NOT USE 2020 DONATION ENVELOPES - IF YOU DO, YOUR DONATION WILL BE CREDITED TO WHOEVER HAS YOUR NUMBER FOR 2021" Don't forget to write, as clearly as possible, your complete name and address. Thank you!

Fr Liborio's Reflection

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Today we enter into the Season of Ordinary Time – we celebrate the 2nd Sunday of Ordinary time this Sunday.

In today's Gospel we are given a glimpse of the process of how faith in Jesus grows from recognizing the uniqueness of the person of Jesus to the radical decision of dropping everything and following Him.

As John looks out and recognizes Jesus walking by, he informs the two disciples near him, "look, here is the Lamb of God!" This statement brings the two disciples to walk behind Jesus – curiosity has touched their minds. As they walk behind Jesus, our blessed Lord stops and turns around and asks that famous question which is also a question for all of us as well – Jesus asks "What are you looking for?"

We can ask ourselves this very question – what are we looking for? And each and every one of us must answer this question with sincerity and truthfulness. What are we looking for?

Many people are looking for money, fame, prestige, power, glamour etc. And yet even if they find what they are looking for in these things they are still empty – they begin to search for something else that might fill the void they seek.

If one is looking for joy, peace, fulfilment, understanding, etc., then one need not look any further than what the first disciples found after spending the day with Jesus. As we hear in today's Gospel Andrew rushes to find his brother Peter and proclaims that "We have found the Messiah."

May we be like Andrew and find in Jesus the promised one and then rush to let others know what we have found.

Blessings,

Fr. Liborio

God's Doorkeeper: St. André of Montreal

On January 6, 1937, the death of a humble doorkeeper for a boys' college drew over a million people to Montreal for his funeral. For forty years, Brother André Bessette of the Congregation of Holy Cross welcomed people at the door and became known as a miraculous healer.

God's Doorkeeper looks at the heart and legacy of Brother André—as a man of prayer, of hospitality, and of compassion, a man who draws people in to experience a God who is love. Brother André also had a tremendous devotion to St. Joseph that he shared with all who came in contact with him. On October 17, 2010, Brother André became the first Canadian-born male saint and the first saint for the Congregation of Holy Cross. He is living proof that "it is with the smallest brushes that the divine artist paints the most beautiful pictures."

Bible Verses

Jesus said, "If your first concern is to look after yourself, you'll never find yourself. But if you forget about yourself and look to me, you'll find both yourself and me" - Matthew 10:39

"As for you, my friends, you were called to be free. But do not let this freedom become an excuse for letting your physical desires control you. Instead, let love make you serve one another" - Galatians 5:13

"You will seek me, and you will find me because you will seek me with all your heart" - Jeremiah 29:13

World Day of the Sick: Pope urges “trust-based relationship” in care for the sick

In his message for the 29th World Day of the Sick on 11 February, Pope Francis urges a path of healing grounded in a trusting and interpersonal relationship between the sick and those who care for them.

“A society is all the more human to the degree that it cares effectively for its most frail and suffering members, in a spirit of fraternal love.” Pope Francis makes the point in his message for this year's World Day of the Sick.

In order to fight hypocrisy and self-idolatry, he says, Jesus asks us to “stop and listen, to establish a direct and personal relationship with others, to feel empathy and compassion, and to let their suffering become our own as we seek to serve them,”

Learning from the Saints

Saint Anthony the Great - January 17th

Anthony was born in Egypt in 250. At age 20, when his parents died, Anthony made sure his younger sister's education could be completed in a community of holy women. He then sold all his possessions and left for a life of solitude in the desert. There an elderly hermit taught him about prayer and penance. For 20 years, he lived in isolation. Anthony wanted to know God deeply. He did penance by taking only bread and water once a day at sunset. The devil appeared to him in terrible shapes to tempt him. But Anthony had great confidence in God. Anthony's unusual life did not make him harsh but radiant with God's love and compassion.

Stories of Anthony's holiness spread, and people came to learn from him how to become holy. Some admirers wanted to stay, so Anthony—at age 54—founded a type of monastery consisting of hermitages near one another. Anthony wrote a rule that guided the monks. Later when Anthony heard of the persecutions of the Christians, he wanted to die a martyr. At 60, he left the desert to minister to the Christians in prisons, fearlessly exposing himself to danger. He came to realize that a person can die daily for Christ by serving him in ordinary ways with great love.

Patron saint for the recovery of lost items and is credited with many miracles involving lost people

If You Don't Know What Are You Looking For, Pray

Prayer

God our Creator, we give thanks to you, who alone have the power to impart the breath of life as you form each of us in our mother's womb; grant, we pray, that we, whom you have made stewards of creation, may remain faithful to this sacred trust and constant in safeguarding the dignity of every human life.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen

Vatican on Covid Vaccines w/ Jimmy Akin

Learn More

Matt Fradd and Jimmy Akin discuss the Vatican's recent document in response to concerns about receiving Covid-19 vaccines, or any vaccines, developed using cell lines from aborted fetuses.

They read through the document together and unpack each paragraph one at a time. As we do, we cover:

- The distinction between formal cooperation with evil and remote material cooperation with evil
- How this document fits in with the history of Catholic moral teaching (going all the way back to the letters of St. Paul)
- The potential consequences involved with following your conscience

"Tearful Smiles"

Many years ago, when I was teaching 5th grade, I was grading students' science homework papers. One of the questions was "Who developed the system of naming organisms?" or something like that. Anyway, the correct answer was supposed to be Carl Linnaeus. One of my students wrote 'Adam' for his answer. When I questioned him about it, he said he was referring to Adam in the Bible. He had learned in Sunday School that Adam had named all the animals in the Garden of Eden. Guess what? I counted his answer correct!

Prayer for Healing and Hope (COVID-19)

During this Coronavirus pandemic, many are tempted to fear, anxiety and perhaps even despair. Some have lost their precious lives, some have lost those whom they love, some have suffered through the debilitating effects of this illness, some have lost their jobs, their income, and most have encountered much disruption to the normal flow of their daily lives.

Every crisis in life is also an opportunity to turn to our beloved Savior in trust and complete abandonment so as to rest in His merciful hands. To rest in the hands of God means we are secure, despite the uncertainty of life. It means we are free to love God and others, despite the challenges we face. It means we raise our eyes to Heaven, rather than look down in fear.

Most Merciful and Triune God,
We come to You in our weakness.
We come to You in our fear.
We come to You with trust.
For You alone are our hope.
We place before You the disease
present in our world.
We turn to You in our time of need.
Bring wisdom to doctors.
Give understanding to scientists.
Endow caregivers with compassion and generosity.
Bring healing to those who are ill.
Protect those who are most at risk.
Give comfort to those who have lost a loved one.
Welcome those who have died
into Your Eternal Home.
Stabilize our communities.
Unite us in our compassion.
Remove all fear from our hearts.
Fill us with confidence in Your care.
(mention your particular concerns and prayers now)
Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.
Jesus, I trust in You.
Amen.
