Have a Great Summer!

Fr Liborio's Reflection .....

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

I have decided to give you a summer break from my "Pastor's Corner" – I have been doing this for a good number of summers now.

It's summer time, so enjoy the weather to the fullest. Continue to be safe and well and remember that we can find 'Peace' and 'Relaxation' anywhere. As long as we are with loved ones and we are trying to 'smell the roses' around us then we can either be at a beachside, on a seashore, lounging on a cruise ship, lounging in your backyard, picnicking at Gage Park, sitting on your balcony, or just lounging in your basement. Yes, as long as we bring the 'Prince of Peace' with us to our summer moments, then we can be assured of finding the 'Peace' and 'Relaxation' that summer can bring. With Jesus near us, we can find in one form or another, a relaxing summer vacation, near or far.

Happy summer to all,

Fr. Liborio

Faith When You're Frustrated with God - Bishop Barron's Sunday Sermon

Friends, we find two stories tensely intertwined together—and both contain great suffering and great healing. Through this passage, we are reminded that even in the midst of confusion and frustration with God, we are called to trust in the Lord and his timing.

Kids Pick of the Week

Topsy Turvy

What right-minded caterpillar wouldn't want to squirm out of his chores only to do what he wanted to all day! In fact, this would make the perfect world!... Or would it? When all of the town's residents mysteriously slack off their responsibilities to pursue rap careers, professional leapfrogging and martial arts, Carlos alone is left to face a near disaster.

John Paul II in America: Uniting a Continent

The papacy of St. John Paul II left an indelible mark on the American continent. Driven by his singular conviction of a "United American Continent" under the patronage of Our Lady of Guadalupe, his papal travels from Argentina to Alaska generated massive crowds, shaped an entire generation, and ultimately changed the course of history. Long celebrated for his role in the fall of communism in Eastern Europe, John Paul's crusade for human rights and religious freedom also transformed the West. John Paul II in America explores the Pope's pivotal role in the fall of dictatorships in Chile, Haiti, Paraguay, and Brazil.

Bible Verses

*Have PEACE by being united
to ME*

"But God in his grace chose me even before I was born, and called me to serve him..." - Galatians 1:15

"You did not choose me; I chose you and appointed you to go and bear much fruit, the kind of fruit that endures. And so the Father will give you whatever you ask of him in my name - John 15:16

"Neither the world above nor the world below - there is nothing in all creation that will ever be able to separate us from the love of God which is ours through Christ Jesus our Lord" - Romans 8:39

Vatican: 1,300th death Anniversary of St. Odile

Card. Parolin marks 1,300th death anniversary of St. Odile and also 90 years of the perpetual Eucharistic Adoration at Mont Sainte-Odile

Who is St. Odile?

Saint Odile, the daughter of Duke Adalrich of Alsace, was born blind around 660. The girl, whose first name means "Light of God", was miraculously healed during her baptism at the age of 15. She then became a nun and founded a monastery at Hohenbourg Castle, on a hill which later took her name, Mont Sainte-Odile. The monastery is a well-known place of tourism and pilgrimage in Alsace. St. Odile died in 720, 1300 years ago.

Saint Odile was canonized by Pope Leo IX in the 11th century, and she was proclaimed patron saint of Alsace by Pope Pius XII in 1946, a year after the end of the Second World War which had particularly affected this territory, annexed by Nazi Germany with an extremely violent administration. Since December 13, 2020, the Archdiocese of Strasbourg has been organizing a Grand Jubilee for the 1300 years of the death of Saint Odile.

Learning from the Saints

St. Henry

A king walks the tight path of virtue

The life of Saint Henry shows that even a king has a King. Even the powerful are under Someone more powerful. Good kings know that; bad ones don't. King Henry lived a life in many ways typical of the royals of his era. He was involved in nearly constant political maneuverings and military battles to protect and expand his kingdom. There were fights to attain power and fights to retain power. There were long military campaigns in Poland, Hungary, Germany, and Italy. There was court intrigue, a strategic but childless marriage, the envy of nobles, and all the other ingredients inherent to the struggle for power. But Henry is the only Holy Roman Emperor ever to be canonized a saint for a reason. He had deep faith. He loved the Church. He lived the virtues to a heroic degree. He received the Sacraments. He was devoted to Saint Mary.

Patron Saint of the childless and Benedictine Oblates

Prayer in Time of COVID

Gracious God, you who are the author of all life, and who desire the well-being of all people, during these dark days of COVID-19, increase in us, respect and reverence for all human life.

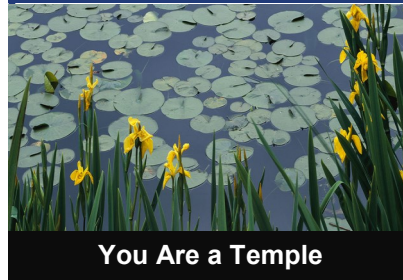

Grant restored health to the sick, comfort and hope to the dying, eternal peace for those who have died, strength to family members, relatives, clergy, friends and volunteers, renewed energy to hospital workers, PSWs, nurses and doctors, and perseverance to all in the health care professions.

Grant wisdom to scientists for the development of effective and moral vaccines, discernment and right judgment for legislators, aid to the discouraged, poor and vulnerable, courage and justice for front-line workers and all who risk their lives for the benefit of others, and keep always in our minds the vision of the true common good of all the world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Robert Kasun, CSB

"Church Bulletin Board Funnies"

A child asked his father, "How were people born?" So his father said, "Adam and Eve made babies, then their babies became adults and made babies, and so on." The child then went to his mother, asked her the same question and she told him, "We were monkeys then we evolved to become like we are now." The child ran back to his father and said, "You lied to me!" His father replied, "No, your mom was talking about her side of the family."

Eating, Communion, and Our Need for Repentance

One of the stated reasons I started The Catholic Foodie in 2008 was to inspire and encourage families to get back into the kitchen and back around the table. It was all about growing in faith, growing in... communion. Because as we see in Scripture, and as we experience in our own lives, communion is most often experienced around the table: the table of the Eucharist at church and our dinner table at home. In the face of numerous cultural influences effecting the disintegration of family life, I saw that the only way for families to stay together was to be intentional in their efforts. Staying together had to mean something. Staying together is worth fighting for. For love to grow in families, families need to spend time together. As I've heard it said, "Kids spell love T-I-M-E." And, from my perspective, mealtimes are the built-in daily opportunities for families to spend time together.

Episode 3: Consecration: Our Priestly Role

Did you know that you are called to offer sacrifice to God in your daily life? In this episode, Scripture scholar Dr. John Bergsma teaches about the universal priesthood and how to fulfill our roles as a priestly people. Your family will discover the importance of offering up the big and small trials of life and how the sacraments aid in fulfilling God's call. At the end of the episode, pray along with the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary.
