Saint Teresa of the Andes: The Story of the First Chilean Saint

A beautiful, epic mini-series produced in Chile that tells the story of the inspiring life of the new young Carmelite saint who lived in the 20th century, died at the age of just 19 years old, and was canonized by Pope John Paul II in 1993. St. Teresa of Jesus of the Andes, known officially as "St. Teresa of the Andes", grew up in a close-knit, upper middle class Catholic family in Santiago, Chile, was very popular with her friends and relatives, entered Carmel at age 19, and died before her 20th birthday. So what is it about this young, modern American saint that caused the Church to recognize her heroic virtue and sanctity at ...

Vatican: First World Day for Grandparents and Elderly scheduled for 25 July

"I am with you always"

It expresses the closeness of the Lord and the Church to every older person, especially in these challenging times of the Covid-19 pandemic.

"I am with you always" is also "a promise of closeness and hope that young and old can mutually share", notes the press release. Not only are grandchildren and youths invited to be present in the lives of older people, but older people and grandparents also have a mission of evangelization, proclamation and prayer, and of encouraging young people in their faith.

Live Your Faith

Learning from the Saints

St. Ignatius Loyola, patron saint of soldiers

A soldier reads his way to holiness and founds a mighty company

Like so many other male saints, today's saint began his adult life as a knight and soldier. In the service of a local noble, he learned the male sins that armies and royal courts excel in teaching: gambling, fighting, treachery, and womanizing. When courageously defending a fortress in Pamplona, Spain, Ignatius was hit by a cannonball. One leg was shattered and the other badly damaged. A long and painful recovery ensued. During this convalescence, he consciously decided to exchange his service from an earthly to a divine Lord. Yet Ignatius' initial conversion developed, over time, into something far more subtle. As he moved toward the Priesthood, Ignatius engaged in profound reflection on the nature of Christian self-awareness, on prayer, and on what it meant to be radically committed to Christ and the Church.

Saint Ignatius, may your method and example of prayer, mortification, and study inspire all modern apostles to make Christ the destination and the path, the end and the means, the way, the truth, and the life.

Prayer in Time of COVID

Gracious God, you who are the author of all life, and who desire the well-being of all people, during these dark days of COVID-19, increase in us, respect and reverence for all human life.

Grant restored health to the sick, comfort and hope to the dying, eternal peace for those who have died, strength to family members, relatives, clergy, friends and volunteers, renewed energy to hospital workers, PSWs, nurses and doctors, and perseverance to all in the health care professions.

Grant wisdom to scientists for the development of effective and moral vaccines, discernment and right judgment for legislators, aid to the discouraged, poor and vulnerable, courage and justice for front-line workers and all who risk their lives for the benefit of others, and keep always in our minds the vision of the true common good of all the world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Robert Kasun, CSB

Learn from the Wise

Loving God, I am grateful for those people who have shared their wisdom with me. May I, like the boy Jesus, continue to grow in age, wisdom, and grace.

SCATTERED SEEDS

Fr. Mike Schmitz: "Wanting to Fix People"

We have a tendency to want to fix the people we love. While delighting in all their good traits, we think, "If only they didn't have this one quirk..." In this video, Fr. Mike Schmitz explains that love embraces the entire person just the way he or she is. He then gives some practical advice on how to do that.

Pray for Vocations

In the Gospel many people hunger for a small amount of food. In our day, there are too many people for the small number of priests, sisters, brothers and deacons.

We too must trust in the Lord by praying for vocations. If you feel God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

"Church Bulletin Board Funnies"

Irving Benson and Jessie Carter were married on October 24 in the church. So ends a friendship that began in their school days.

FAMILY CORNER

CELEBRATE GRANDPARENTS DAY

The World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly in July and Grandparents Day in September invite us to honor the special gifts of grandparents. Do that with fun activities that encourage intergenerational conversations.

This is just one way to put into practice the apostolic exhortation Christus Vivit (Christ Is Alive):

Encourage connections between generations with our new choice board that invites children to learn about and develop deeper relationships with their elders. Give children choices by asking them to select and complete a set number of activities from the board: three-in-a-row, any four, or whatever number you choose. Activities include options for children to interview their grandparents, write a song, make a chart, and more.

Grandchildren Inspire Me by Peggy Weber

The mutual spreading of the faith can be beautiful

Of course, it is not always easy to bring little ones to church or to talk with a teen or tween about God. But it is worth the effort. We get to expose young people to a faith that will help them throughout life. And they get to be in places where they will be touched by God's grace and share their unique insights. It's not easy.

older people often can make a difference with young ones. Try these ideas together:

- Pray
- Visit shrines.
- Buy religious items.
- Hold a May crowning.
- Attend a concert.
- Say grace before meals.
- Take a walk in nature.
- Say some quiet prayers—or even loud ones about dinosaurs.

Bless My Grandparents

Dear Lord,

I pray that you watch over my grandparents.

Please bless them with your love.

May you keep them safe and guard their path and protect them from above.

I pray that they will always know, and I can help them see, just how much I love them and what they mean to me.

Prayer for the First World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly

I thank You, Lord, for the comfort of Your presence: even in times of loneliness,

You are my hope and my confidence, You have been my rock and my fortress since my youth! I thank You for having given me a family and for having blessed me with a long life. I thank You for moments of joy and difficulty, for the dreams that have already come true in my life and for those that are still ahead of me. I thank You for this time of renewed fruitfulness to which You call me. Increase, O Lord, my faith, make me a channel of your peace, teach me to embrace those who suffer more than me, to never stop dreaming and to tell of your wonders to new generations. Protect and guide Pope Francis and the Church, that the light of the Gospel might reach the ends of the earth. Send Your Spirit, O Lord, to renew the world, that the storm of the pandemic might be calmed, the poor consoled and wars ended. Sustain me in weakness and help me to live life to the full in each moment that You give me, in the certainty that you are with me every day, even until the end of the age.

Amen.

Thank You for your Offering!
