MaryGrove Collection

The Marygrove Camp Collection will be on the weekend of June 12-13. If you would like to help, please insert the envelop with your donation on the wooden box beside the altar.

Fr. Patrick is Moving!

Send him a letter of thanks, or create a short video of your goodbyes, to the following email address: stmarysbr.online@gmail.com. We will gather your letters and short videos and put them all into one gift of love for Fr. Patrick.

Please send your letters and videos to us by June 20th at the very latest.

Fr Liborio's Reflection

Dear brothers and sisters Christ,

As we move into "Ordinary Time" once again, we do not imply by the word "Ordinary" that it is still not the greatest event of all time. Each time we celebrate the Eucharist on the Lord's Day we are celebrating the Passion, Death, Resurrection and Ascension of our Lord.

Our Sunday Eucharist is anything but ordinary. The word "Ordinary" signifies that we celebrate these next Sundays outside of a specific designated season (i.e. Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter).

I wish you and your family a blessed and joyous 11th Sunday in Ordinary Time. Remember to pray together and try to remove all distractions that will take you away from honouring the Lord. Remember that on Sundays we are living out the Three Commandment of God – "keep the Sabbath Day Holy."

Blessings,

Fr. Liborio

Sacred Heart of Jesus, "Heart Speaks to Heart."

Create in me a pure heart, O God, and renew a steadfast spirit within me.

- Psalm 51:10

CCCBC Statement Delegation to the Holy See

The Catholic Bishops in Canada have genuinely heard the sincere invitation to engage wholeheartedly with the past and are deeply committed to take truly meaningful active steps together with Indigenous Peoples in view of a future filled with greater respect and cooperation. The recent discovery of children's remains at a burial site of a former residential school in Kamloops, British Columbia remind us of a tragic legacy still felt today. With the strong encouragement of Pope Francis, the Bishops of Canada have pledged true and deep commitment to renewing and strengthening relationships with Indigenous Peoples across the land. In recent years, regional and diocesan listening circles have taken place across the country in order to hear the stories from local Indigenous communities and their hopes for the future. Mutual listening is the beginning of our common efforts to bring about shared and long-lasting reconciliation, authentic healing and bridge building.

In conversation with Indigenous people and communities, both at the local and national levels, and bilaterally with the First Nations, Métis and Inuit national organizations, the Bishops, sponsors of this project, have been preparing, for over two years now, a delegation of Indigenous people to meet with the Holy Father to foster meaningful encounters of dialogue and healing. This pastoral visit will include the participation of a diverse group of Elders/Knowledge Keepers, residential school survivors and youth from across the country. The event will likewise provide Pope Francis with a unique opportunity to hear directly from Indigenous Peoples, express his heartfelt closeness, address the impact of colonization and the implication of the Church in the residential schools, so as to respond to the suffering of Indigenous Peoples and the ongoing effects of intergenerational trauma.

The global pandemic caused by COVID-19 has stalled this project; however, the Bishops remain committed to moving forward with the delegation prior to the end of 2021, in compliance with international travel guidelines.

The delegation to the Holy See represents an important step on the journey of reconciliation and shared healing for Indigenous Peoples and the Church in Canada. Pope Francis, in his 6 June 2021 Angelus message, spoke about the shocking discovery of children's remains at the former Kamloops residential school and, while conveying sorrow and solidarity, emphasized the importance of "walking side by side in dialogue and in mutual respect in the recognition of the rights and cultural values of all the sons and daughters of Canada". It is our hope that these forthcoming encounters – and the important collaboration and partnership that has supported the planning – will lead to a shared future of peace and harmony between Indigenous Peoples and the Catholic Church in Canada.

Ben-Hur: A Race to Glory

Young Ben-Hur and Messala were the best of friends. They loved to race chariots. One day, Messala had to leave Jerusalem and his Jewish friend to study in Rome and become a Roman officer. When Messala came back, the boyhood friends were now men but friends no longer. Messala falsely imprisoned Ben-Hur's family and sent him to the galleys. He...

Pick of the Week

Our God's Brother

This is the true story of St. Albert Chmielowski, a celebrated Polish artist and painter in the 1800's who was a major inspiration for young Karol Wojtyla, later Pope John Paul II. Albert became dissatisfied with his painting and disillusioned about the meaning of life when he encountered many homeless and outcast beggars in Poland; these encounters triggered his passion to help the poor. He gave up his promising painting career, and became a monk who served the poor for the rest of his life. He founded a new religious community that would come to be known as the Albertine Brothers and later, the Albertine Sisters.

Bible Verses

Remember the Sabbath Day to Keep it Holy

"Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who lays hold on it; who keeps from defiling the Sabbath, and keeps his hand from doing any evil - Isaiah 56:2

"Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord Thy God..." - Exodus 20:8-10

"I am the Lord your God; follow my decrees and be careful to keep my laws. Keep my Sabbath Holy, that they may be a sign between us. Then You will know that I am the Lord your God ." - Ezekiel 20:19-20

Vatican: "Exploring the Mind, Body and Soul."

Pope sends message to Vatican conference on Mind, Body and Soul

"We are not pure spirits; for each of us, everything starts with our body, but not only: from conception to death, we do not simply have a body; we are a body," Pope Francis affirmed, adding that Christian faith tells us that this will also be true in the Resurrection.

Pope Francis acknowledged all who are personally and professionally committed to the care of the sick and the support of those in need, particularly in these recent times of the Covid-19 pandemic which continues to claim lives and challenge our sense of solidarity and authentic fraternity.

Saint Romuald, Abbot

To be alone with God is not to be alone

Since the time of Saint Benedict in the sixth century, there had essentially been only one monastic order in the Latin Rite Church, the Benedictines. Benedictine monasteries shone like stars in a broad constellation, blinking throughout Europe from east to west and north to south. Each monastery and school was like a vertebra strengthening the intellectual and spiritual skeleton of Europe. Over the centuries, however, and inevitably, the Benedictines atrophied, cracked from dryness, and needed new wine poured into their old wineskins. The saint who reformed Benedictine life and who founded the Cistercian Order was Saint Bernard of Clairvaux. But he was not born until 1090. It was today's saint, Romuald, much less well-known, who cleared the path for Saint Bernard and for the reform of monasticism, ensuring its survival in the middle ages.

Saint Romuald was born in the middle of the tenth century in Northern Italy. After his father killed a relative in a duel, Romuald entered a local monastery for a few weeks of penance. But the weeks turned into months and the months into years. He stayed. Unfortunately, the monks were as lukewarm as old bathwater, and Saint Romuald told them so. He had to leave. He put himself under the tutelage of a wise hermit, then traveled to Spain to live as a hermit on the grounds of a Benedictine monastery. He subsequently...

Prayer in Time of COVID

Gracious God, you who are the author of all life, and who desire the well-being of all people, during these dark days of COVID-19, increase in us, respect and reverence for all human life.

Grant restored health to the sick, comfort and hope to the dying, eternal peace for those who have died, strength to family members, relatives, clergy, friends and volunteers, renewed energy to hospital workers, PSWs, nurses and doctors, and perseverance to all in the health care professions.

Grant wisdom to scientists for the development of effective and moral vaccines, discernment and right judgment for legislators, aid to the discouraged, poor and vulnerable, courage and justice for front-line workers and all who risk their lives for the benefit of others, and keep always in our minds the vision of the true common good of all the world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Bishop Robert Kasun, CSB

3 minute Prayer Retreat

And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it.

-Matthew 16:18

Changing the World

Father, help me to remember that I am the Church of today; it is my responsibility to serve your kingdom.

Help me to realize that the words I pray-Thy kingdom come-are a call to action.

Pope's Prayer Intention
The beauty of marriage

Pope's June prayer intention: 'The beauty of Marriage'

He goes on to admit that marriage is a "demanding journey" which can be complicated at times. But he adds that "getting married and sharing one's life is something beautiful."

"And on this life-long journey, the husband and wife aren't alone," says the Pope. "Jesus accompanies them."

Vocation of love

Pope Francis then reflects on the importance of the Sacrament of Marriage, and its centrality in the life of the Church and of those who undertake this path.

"Marriage isn't just a 'social' act," he notes. "It's a vocation that's born from the heart, a conscious decision for the rest of one's life that requires specific preparation."
