Fr Liborio's Reflection

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

This weekend we say goodbye to Fr. Patrick.

As you have heard me say before, an Associate Pastor's ministry in a parish often concludes after a two to three year period. The reason Associate Pastors move more frequently than pastors is to give them more experience of the diverseness of parish life before they are themselves are named pastors of their own parishes.

So, after three years of ministry here at St. Mary's, Fr. Patrick now moves to Transfiguration Parish as its new Associate pastor. I hope and pray that Fr. Patrick will be able to take with him the good parts of my ministry here as Pastor and throw away those parts in my character and ministry that have not been of Christ. May Fr. Patrick take the good he has learned and apply it to his new posting.

I am sure that you join me in wishing Fr. Patrick many blessings and success in his new role as Associate Pastor of Transfiguration Parish.

May God bless you Fr. Patrick and rest assured that you will remain in our prayers.

Blessings,

Fr. Liborio

Pope to the elderly: God sends his angels to console your loneliness

Pope Francis reassures the elderly that God is always with them in his message for the first-ever World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. He also reminds them of their vocation to preserve our roots and to pass on the faith to the younger ones.

First World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly ahead of the date of the celebration which is scheduled for 25 July. The theme chosen by the Pope for the inaugural commemoration is "I am with you always" (Mt 28: 30).

The Holy Father addressed the theme from the Gospel of Matthew to all Grandparents and the elderly, reminding them that this is the promise the Lord made to his disciples before he ascended into heaven. "The whole Church is close to you – to us – and cares about you, loves you and does not want to leave you alone!" the Pope said, identifying with the elderly, as one of them.

The Lord sends angels, messengers through His words

Even at the darkest moments, the Lord continues to send angels to console our loneliness and to remind us that He is with us always

Learning from the Saints

Saint John Fisher, and Thomas More

Saint Thomas More was the greatest Englishman of his generation. In a land with a highly educated aristocratic class, his erudition was unequalled. He was a devoted family man who carried out an extensive correspondence with his children and ensured that his daughters were as well educated as his sons. He served the English crown faithfully both at home and abroad. He charmed his many friends with a rich and engaging personality. He published scholarly works and communicated with other humanists of his era. Yet despite all of these accomplishments, the fraught times he lived in eventually overwhelmed him. He could not save his own head.

The Age of the Author Thomas More was one of the greatest humanists of his age but also a man devoted to the spiritual life. His lifetime of learning, charity, and service to the public good of England enabled him to stand a patient and holy witness—and one of the greatest of modern martyrs—against the tyranny of Henry VIII. St. Thomas More

Saint John Fisher was an academic who held various high positions at the University of Cambridge, one of the two universities in all of England, eventually becoming its Chancellor for life. He was a Renaissance humanist, like Thomas More, who encouraged the study of Latin, Greek, and Hebrew. Fisher was the personal tutor of Henry VIII when Henry was a boy, and he preached the funeral homily of Henry's father, Henry VII. John Fisher lived a life of extreme personal austerity and even placed a human skull on the table during meals to remind himself of his eventual end. He had many of the same qualities as More—great learning, personal uprightness, and academic accomplishments.

Prayer in Time of COVID

Gracious God, you who are the author of all life, and who desire the well-being of all people, during these dark days of COVID-19, increase in us, respect and reverence for all human life.

Grant restored health to the sick, comfort and hope to the dying, eternal peace for those who have died, strength to family members, relatives, clergy, friends and volunteers, renewed energy to hospital workers, PSWs, nurses and doctors, and perseverance to all in the health care professions.

Grant wisdom to scientists for the development of effective and moral vaccines, discernment and right judgment for legislators, aid to the discouraged, poor and vulnerable, courage and justice for front-line workers and all who risk their lives for the benefit of others, and keep always in our minds the vision of the true common good of all the world.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Gift of Family

Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land which the Lord, your God, is giving you.

-Exodus 20:12

Thank you, Jesus, for the gift of family. May I continue to grow in my appreciation of the sacredness of family life.

Let's set record straight on papal apologies

Fr. Raymond de Souza:
Let's set record straight on papal apologies

"We suffered needlessly and tragically," he told Pope Benedict. "We can forgive with generosity of spirit and with the hand of friendship, or we can seek sustenance from bitterness and vengeance. We come here today Most Holy Father, with the spirit and lessons of our ancestors and elders in mind. Reconciliation and friendship is what we seek. The time to re-build a better and brighter future together is upon us."

Prayer to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

May the symbol of the Sacred Heart, the compassionate love of Jesus, remind us of our need to have a thoughtful and humane personal warmth at the center of who we are, a sensitivity which shapes how we relate to ourselves, and to God, and to those around us. That we may foster a culture of compassion each day, we pray to the Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer.

SPIRITUAL SMOOTHIE: WHAT IT MEANS TO MAKE "REPARATION" TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Find out what it means to make a reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and why it is SO necessary in our world today.

Behold this heart, which has so loved mankind that it has spared itself nothing, even to being spent and consumed to prove its love for men. And yet it has received in return from the majority of mankind only ingratitude, coldness, and the neglect of me in the sacrament of my love. But what is even more painful to me is that it is hearts consecrated to me which use me thus.

Host of EWTN's Savoring Our Faith, Fr. Leo Patalinghug, Starts Food Truck for the Homeless

Founder and Director of Plating Grace and host of EWTN's Savoring Our Faith, Fr. Leo Patalinghug, has a new initiative focused on helping the homeless, and not surprisingly, it involves cooking. Fr. Leo says "When [you] turn a certain age, a specific number, most people would get themselves, I don't know, a convertible. You know what I want to get? a food truck." He says the truck would be used to feed the homeless and those affected by the coronavirus, and doing the cooking will be chefs from very different backgrounds. The founder of Plating Grace joins to tell us more about why he feels the food truck is so important and what types of food he will be serving. He discusses what made him start this initiative... other than his milestone birthday! And he also fills us in on how much money they need to raise, how it's going so far and where our viewers can go to learn more if they want to help.
